Ensemble

Ensemble is French for "together" and together we make up the Ragin' Cajuns. Cajun is a way of life. It's food. It's language. It's people. It's a system of roots stretching deep from our French beginnings to our Acadian future.

Living here we have all experienced it, those moments only common to our little corner of the globe. To us, Passe Partout is more than a morning news segment, saying our Pledge of Allegiance in French was always expected, dancing in the streets is our way of cutting loose, crawfIsh is the meal of choice, and the words "Shaaa baby" are part of the everyday vocabulary.

Although our good spirits and charming ways are traits worth mentioning, it's the humble, hospitable actions of our people that speak volumes as to what it truly means to be of Acadian descent. To be Cajun means that whether born or adopted into the culture, you are part of a family that reaches far and wide across the world to support one another. It's the idea that, like our ancestors, we are stronger than the tragedies that have repeatedly tried to bring us down.

Fortunately for you and the rest of the Ragin' Cajun nation, Lafayette is home to some of the happiest and most welcoming Cajuns around. The cities eclectic people and festivals are sure to excite natives and newcomers alike because down here in Acadiana..... you are one of us.

You are a member of the ensemble that we call our Cajun family. Together, as an ensemble, we overcome barriers. We redeem traditions. We create and protect beauty. We live. We laugh. We love, and we offer that joy with arms wide open to the rest of the world. No where else can you fInd the same food, music, people, and history. So kick back or put on your dancing shoes because down here in the Ragin' Cajun nation, you're in for a two-stepping good time.

Bienvenue to the Ragin' Cajun family.

A Big Day To

Every August, excitement can be felt in the air as students kiss their parents goodbye and settle into their new lives at UL Lafayette. Various organizations rally together to help students with this transition process through Move-In Day.

This year's Move-In Day was particularly exciting as the university welcomed our largest freshman class yet. Freshmen, with their mini fridges and throw pillows in tow, were able to both make new friends and receive help moving their belongings. Kaylee Hahn, a freshman majoring in management here at UL Lafayette, said, "I met some of my best friends through Move-In Day. They helped me move into my dorm, but more importantly they helped me adjust to college life. My flrst year of college would have been a lot different if Move-In Day hadn't connected me with the people that would become my best friends."

Move-In Day is undoubtedly one of the most important days that occur for a college freshman. Thankfully, UL Lafayette and different campus organizations work hard to ensure that all students are met with smiling faces and helping hands on Move-In Day.

Get Involved Every Week

With the beginning of school come and gone, we look back upon the lively tradition known as Welcome Week. Held throughout the first week of classes during the fall semester on August twenty-fourth to August twenty-eighth, this year's kick-start to the festivities included a Fruit and Donut Give-a-way on Monday morning. Faculty and students gathered on the corner of Rex Street and St. Mary Boulevard to help fuel students on their way to the first classes of the semester. Another integral part of the week is Get On Board Day on Wednesday. Various campus clubs and organizations come together in the quad to show prospective members the best of everything the University of Louisiana at Lafayette has to offer. This also gave all the newest people on campus a chance to meet new people and find their niche. On Thursday evening, students were welcomed to join the Rec Sports organization at Bourgeois Hall for Rec Fest where students can learn about the different classes and intramural sports offered there during the semester. The multiple happenings going on around campus eventually led up to the last and the most anticipated event of the week, the Block Party. All in all, the significance of Welcome Week is to showcase the unique sense of culture, pride, and diversity only to be found at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. When asked how she felt about the past weeks activities Kaitlyn Thompson said, "Welcome week really showed me what it truly means to be a UL Ragin' Cajun. Nowhere else will you find a community as close knit and accepting as the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. All the campus' most unique aspects were showcased amazingly this past week." Likewise, freshman Morgan Bergeron stated, "Welcome week displayed the pride and diversity of the campus by showing us incoming freshman the multiple opportunities and varied people you can meet on campus. It was a truly great start to the school year."

On Friday the twenty-eighth, multiple local businesses joined the UL student body for a celebration located at the corner of Rex Street and St. Mary Boulevard. Local radio stations, realtors, and eateries came out to show their own UL Ragin' Cajun pride and offer some free products and food to students and faculty members.

Krewe of S.o.u.l.

This past August freshman traveled to our beautiful campus to take part in one of the most unique experiences offered at UL- the sixth annual SOUL camp. SOUL camp, which stands for service, outreach, unity, and leadership, is a four-day event designed to engage incoming students in multiple aspects. Three camps take place from either August flrst to the fourth, August sixth through the ninth, or August eleventh until the fourteenth, giving ample amount of time for freshman to grab one of 504 coveted spots made available for the popular event.

The objective of SOUL camp is to instill a sense of leadership and pride in the newest members of the Ragin' Cajun family. Not only are students able to meet upper class mentors and future friends , but it also teaches them the importance of making a difference in and around the community as a leader.

The flrst day, spent on campus, involves SOUL camp Day-of-Service. 168 campers along with their leaders and multiple, local volunteers, take part in city-wide volunteer projects across the Acadiana area. United Way of Acadiana also lends a helping hand during one chosen camp to ensure that we keep Lafayette and it's surrounding areas beautiful. That night, after a long day of inspiring, dedicated hard work, campers are rewarded with a social at Bougeious Hall. Allowing them to mingle amongst other fellow members of the class of 2019.

Day two through four is spent at Tall Timbers, a campsite located in Forest Hill, Louisiana just outside of Alexandria. While there campers are split into groups otherwise known as "krewes" with names that relate to the culture often associated with UL. Names range from Krewe Lafayette to Krewe Roux. As a krewe, campers take part in activities such as the Cajun Olympics, leadership seminars, listening to advice from a carefully chosen key note speaker.. This past year Mike Smith from The Fisher Agency was handpicked. He used his words to inspire students to "leave a legacy" on campus as they venture into their years as a Ragin' Cajun. Lastly, with four fun-fllled, invigorating days behind them the last night is used to honor the campers with an award show and recognition of some very special individuals.

In regards to her time at this past year's SOUL camp, one freshman, Haley Campbell stated, "SOUL camp gave me so many opportunities that I am so appreciative of now. Coming to a college where I only knew about ten people scared me, but being able to attend SOUL camp gave me an opportunity to meet people that I still, to this day, see and greet around campus. The mentors and staff showed so much love for being a Ragin' Cajun that by the end of the week my excitement for starting school and offlcially becoming a Ragin' Cajun was out the roof. It's deflnitely helped to shape me into the Ragin' Cajun that I am today!" Another new face, Emily Lormand summed it up best when she said, "SOUL camp was a perfect opportunity to make new friends in a new place."

It was another successful SOUL camp for the books that united leadership and friendship to bring some of the brightest students closer together as one big, proud Ragin' Cajun family.

The Red Bus Project

For the past two years, UL has been visited by a double-decker bus renovated into a thrift store through an organization called the Red Bus Project. The Red Bus Project is not only a great idea, but it also exists to help a great cause.

The Red Bus travels the country raising funds and awareness for orphans throughout the world. Interns from all over the country volunteer their time going to different college campuses to shed light raise money to meet the needs of orphans. The Red Bus houses clothes that have been donated and which are resold in order to do this. Ashlyn Dykes, a sophomore majoring in Biology, said, "I think what the Red Bus Project does is really cool because it raises awareness about a major issue that most college students don't even think about." Michael Laiche, a sophomore majoring in Criminal Justice said, "This is my second year visiting the Red Bus Project and I like what they do. It's important to remember that orphans aren't only in third world countries."

The Red Bus Project dons a sign on it that holds facts about orphans, including that there are more than 500,000 children in the U.S. Foster Care system and that another child becomes an orphan every 18 seconds. The Red Bus Project is working to impact these statistics for the positive, and UL is happy to be a part of it!

"Big" Bonds

The third annual Big Event, held October 24, continued the success of the previous two, with over 2,900 student and faculty members volunteering for the community service event. The volunteers were placed in over 100 project sites in five different parishes, including Acadia, Lafayette, St. Martin, St. Landry, and Vermillion. Projects included painting, refurbishing playgrounds, landscaping, planting trees, and neighborhood cleanup efforts.

This year, freshmen were able to volunteer through their UNIV 100 classes. "It was a fun and amazing experience with my teacher, peer mentor, and the new friends I made in my UNIV 100 class," said freshman Tiara Smith.

Other volunteers came from various student organizations on campus, including Black Male Leadership Association. "For the Big Event, BMLA planted plants to help the university stay beautiful," BMLA president Ryan Robin said, "The Big Event helped strengthen our bond as an organization."

The Big Event is a rewarding way for students, faculty, and Lafayette residents to give back to their community in a way that is both productive and exciting. "It was a different, more fun kind of community service," said freshman Darrel Francis III. "It pushed me to set an example, and reminded me that you should always give back to the community."

Freshman Ashley Cottom refLects on the Big Event by saying, "My group cleaned up trash around the dorms, then laid down mulch in the Flower beds and around some trees.. It was really cool to be a part of making our pride and joy campus more beautiful. It gave me an appreciation for the workers around campus who clean up after all of us!"

Time To

This year's homecoming at UL-Lafayette was deflnitely one to remember! Filled with a plethora of events all throughout homecoming week, students were able to participate and enjoy a festive break from the stressors of class.

Homecoming 2015 kicked off on Sunday, October 25th, with Ragin' Cajuns Bowling hosted by the Alumni Association. This was a registered event, however, the turnout was fllled with Ragin' spirit! On Monday during normal lunch hours for the students the Alumni Association also hosted the Allon's Mager Food Truck Round-Up, in which 9 local restaurants came to provide food accompanied by music for the students. Later that night, Ragin' Cajun Karaoke was held at the Blackham Coliseum.

Annual events such as the Movie Night which was held in the Student Union Plaza, Yell Like Hell pep ral-

Louisiana defeated ULM for the seventh time in the past eight meetings and increased its series lead to 27-24. The Ragin' Cajuns won their Homecoming game for the flfth straight season, remaining undefeated in the contest under Mark Hudspeth.

Throwback

ly and the NPHC Greek Step Show were some of the most popular events in terms of attendance. These were events where onlookers were able to see the true spirit of the UL-Lafayette campus! Second-term freshman Addarius Williams said that he truly enjoyed himself, and "will forever hold ULL as the best school ever!"

Although the day of the Homecoming Parade and game were accompanied by extreme rain, the UL Lafayette student body, alumni, and locals still attended and "the show went on!" The spirit and morale of everyone lead our great football team to victory against the ULM Warhawks with a final score of 30-24. Go Cajuns!

Homecoming Royalty

Annaiese Briley

"It was kind of funny because they announced the maids flrst and my name wasn't called, but one of my friends was, and I was excited. I was like, 'Oh well, it was a good experience.' Then, they called the queen and I really did not expect that, so it was pretty cool."

Briley is the vice president of Student Government Association, by which she was nominated from, president of Kappa Delta Sorority, and choregrapher and former dancer for DeLarue Dance Centre. She graduated in the fall with a degree in marketing, and continues to pursue a masters degree here at UL. With her degrees, Annie said she wants to work for a company with values other than money such as Disney World. Pertaining to Homecoming, the queen comments that her favorite part is seeing the decorated Floats.

Mary Katherine Chiasson

She is a petroleum engineering senior nominated by Kappa Delta Sorority in which she holds an of×cer role. Chaisson also serves as the Society of Petroleum Engineers secretary, representative for the American Association of Drilling Engineers, SGA member, Sigma Alpha Lambda member, Order of the Omega, part of the engineering department's quiz bowl team, Blue Key Honors Socley president, a member of the Holy Cross Catholic Church con×rmation team, and Ragin Catholics.

Milan Milson

She is senior majoring in psychoogy nominated for election by the Ragin' Jazz Dance team of which she is co-captain. Milan has donated her time volunteering dance lessons at the Boys and Girls Club of Acadiana, helping St. Joseph Catholic Church, the Games of Acadiana, Habitat for Humanity, and St. Joseph's volunteer programs.

She has recieved the the Ragin' Jazz Veteran of the Year Award as well as being recongmized for academic excellence by the Black Facultuy and Staff Association.

Julianna Brooks

She is a sophomore majoring in economics, and was nominated by the University's Honors program where she serves as Co-chair of the Communications Committee. Brooks is actively involved in Ragin Catholics, Collegiate Economics Organization, and runs for UL's cross country and track team.

"First and foremost, I;m just super excieted to get to spend time with these girls...and wearing a suit and hat. Because I'm not from here, this is, like, a totally new thing. The whole suit and hat thing doesn't happen on the West Coast, at all."

Natalie Richard

She is a sophomore in sociology nominated by the Residence Hall Association. Richard is also the traditions chair frot he UPC, secretary treaseurer for RHA, Alumni Relations chair for Alpha Delta Pi, and has been involved with the Honors Program, Campus Cats, UL Life, Sigma Alpha Lambda Honors Society, and has been an academic mentor for the last two years.

"Definitely one of my favorite things that I've been involved with is just hleping in the community, whether it be with my sorority (Alpha Delta Pi) or with the UL LIFE program.

Dobrielle Gatlin

She is a broadcasting senior nominated by Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, College Democrats, National Association of Black Journalists, University Program Council, SOUL Camp Mentor, and helped found the Black Women Leadership Association.

Gatlin has been nominated for court three times, making it once in 2012 and then again this year. "It's a great way to start and a great way to end."

Ashley Duhon

She is a senior in Biology nominated to Homecoming court by Lambda chi Alpha Fraternity. Duhon is also an SGA senator, treasurer of the Pre-Professionals Society, president of Campus Cats, and social chair for Phi Mu Sorority.

"For me, the selection process was so easy because I have such a legitimate love for my university...I love it so much, and I wouldn't change it for the world," she says.

Splatterbeat

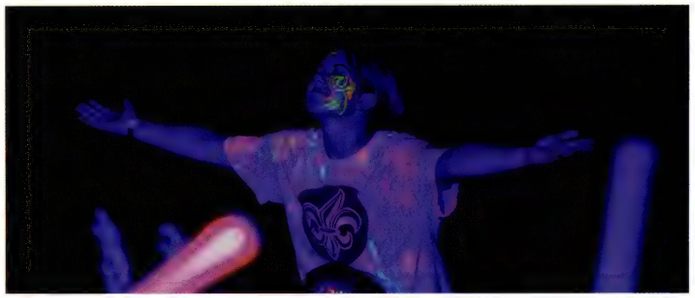

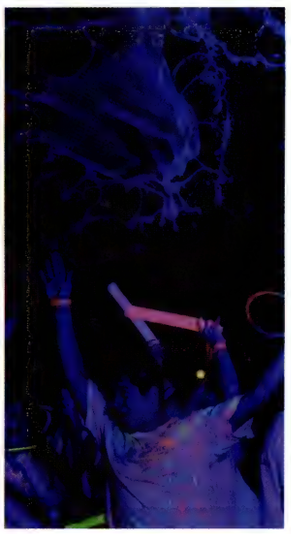

This year, students came out in the multitudes to throw a little paint and have a good time at Splatterbeat. Splatterbeat, which is sponsored by RHA and UPC, proved again to be a favorite event among students.

The event was a particularly huge hit among the freshman on campus. Christina Clines, a fIrst year student majoring in education here at UL, said,"It was so loud and so chaotic, but so much fun! I will be back next year." Nicholas Rosato II, a junior majoring in English, said, "I never imagined that throwing paint at people could be fun, until some friends made me go to Splatterbeat. Turns out it's pretty fun!"

Splatterbeat helped the 2015-2016 school year begin with a bang that was both bright and paint-splattered!

"Fat" Experiences

Intricate costumes, immense Floats, and ecstatic crowds all can be used to describe Mardi Gras in Lafayette. Mardi Gras, however, is more than a social affair.

Mardi Gras, French for fat Tuesday, dates back thousands of years as Romans absorbed the pagan holiday into their Catholic celebration of Lent. In the United States, the celebration dates back to 1699 in present-day New Orleans. However, when the Spanish took over the colony, Mardi Gras celebrations were banned until Louisiana became a state in 1812. As of 2016, Louisiana is the only state in America that "legally" classifles Mardi Gras as a holiday.

Lafayette has its own speciflc way of observing the holiday, and is home to Louisiana's second largest Mardi Gras celebration. The Carnival season begins on the Twelfth Night of Christmas, which falls on January 5 or 6, and continues until Mardi Gras, the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. The Carnival season is a time for feasting and fun before ceasing for Lent.

At UL, we celebrated with our own parade through Rex Street, and our annual masquerade ball. The Krewe of Roux parade has been a tradition on UL's campus for over 25 years.

These events give students an opportunity to experience the Louisiana culture by exposing them to the Mardi Gras tradition while actively engaging them in on-campus activities," said Assistant Director of Student Activities Ruben Henderson to the UL Lafayette website.

The parade ran through Rex street, which featured students, university organizations, and a Krewe of Roux king and queen selection. Each organization was able to nominate a duke and a maid to walk in the parade. That evening, the masquarde ball was held. It was an all-student affair, which featured music, food, and dancing at the Cajundome Convention Center.

"It was fun to experience Mardi Gras in Lafayette, being that I am from Baton Rouge," freshman Breelin Auzenne. "I had a really great time."

Above: The Krewe of Carnivale en Rio is known for colorful Floats, rocking bands, and some of the best beads thrown in Acadiana. This season over 100,000 spectators enjoyed the route through downtown Lafayette.

Far left: Krewe of Roux royalty Amy Fernon and Jacob Martin, were crowned during the parade and reigned over the Mardi Gras Ball that evening.

Whats New

A quick look into some new things the University introduced during the 2015-2016 school year.

University launches Geaux Velo Bike Share program. A total of 52 bikes are available at three stations on campus: 32 at Cajun Field, 10 outside the Student Union on Boucher Street, and 10 inside the Girard Park Circle parking garage. Chandler Burks, a criminal justice major from Lake Charles who plans to become an attorney, "You can take them anywhere. It's been helpful and it's pretty cheap. On a normal day, it costs me about $2." Rental costs are free for the first hour, $1 for the second hour, and $1 for the third. Hours four through eight are free. The cost per hour for every hour after the eighth is $1. Bikes are due back to their original station at midnight. Anyone can rent the bikes, but first must register online at geauxvelobikeshare.com. More than 200 people have registered since the program began last week. Riders receive a user name and pin number after providing financial information with a credit or debit card, or Cajun Card. They can enter their pin number—or swipe their student ID or driver's license—to receive a key at kiosks near each station. The key unlocks a bicycle and must remain inside a lock that sits atop the fender of the front tire while the bicycle is being ridden.

Meet Dr. Taniecea Mallery, the director of equity, diversity and community engagement in the Office for Campus Diversity. She's been on the job for about eight months, and returned to Acadiana after earning her master's and doctorate from Princeton University and working in Washington, DC. With her background in math and a love of data, Dr. Mallery's approach to improving campus diversity is an analytical one. As director, she's working to foster diversity among students, faculty, and staff, and to ensure that underrepresented groups have equal access to educational opportunities and resources. "My biggest hope for this role is to have a positive impact on the climate and culture for equity and diversity on campus. Creating and sustaining a campus environment that is welcoming and supportive of diverse perspectives will ensure that all students, faculty, and staff have the opportunity to thrive and to succeed."

First Portion of Fletcher Hall construction project completed. The first phase of a renovation project to repair water damage caused by extensive leaks to Joel L. Fletcher Hall on the University of Louisiana at Lafayette campus has been completed. - Years of exposure to rain resulted in extensive water damage to the three-story building, which houses the School of Architecture and Design, the Department of Visual Arts, and the College of the Arts' Media Resource Center. Work to repair the damage, which began in December 2013, was ×nished last year. First-1oor exterior walls also were repaired, cleaned, weatherproofed and coated. The existing, interior atrium remains open at the top. Glass walls that enclose the balconies of all three 1oors have been added.

University prestige license plates feature new look. By purchasing a newly redesigned University of Louisiana at Lafayette license plate, vehicle owners accomplish more than expressing their pride. "Not only are you visually showing your support for and loyalty to the University, you're also supporting future students' success through scholarship funds," said Jennifer LeMeunier, executive director of the UL Lafayette Alumni Association. Most of the "prestige" plate fee goes to the Association's Scholarship Fund. The new plate features the University's athletics logo against a white field trimmed in red at the top and at the bottom. The word "Louisiana" is across the top of the license plate. "Geaux Cajuns" is across the bottom. All Louisiana residents may purchase a UL Lafayette plate through the state's Office of Motor Vehicles. It costs $52 above the regular vehicle registration fee and is valid for two years. Of that $52, $50 is directed to the Association's Scholarship Fund.

Ragin' Cajuns™ Genuine Louisiana Ale bottles now on store shelves The wait is over. Ragin' Cajuns™ Genuine Louisiana Ale is now available in bottles. Kody Thompson, marketing manager for Schilling Distributing Company Inc., said demand has been high since the craft beer – on draft – was introduced in September. It sold out at the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns first home football game, for instance. Ragin' Cajuns™ Genuine Louisiana Ale was developed by Bayou Teche Brewing of Arnaudville, La., in partnership with the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. It was inspired by rice, a staple ingredient grown in Louisiana. It's intended to complement tailgating foods and has a crisp taste.

#lafayettestro

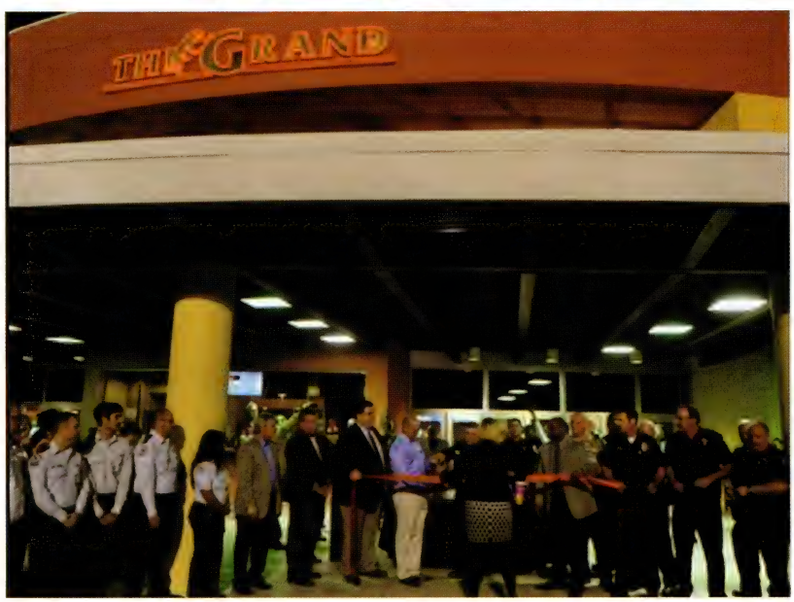

Tragedies are inevetiable, but most don't hit so close to home. Lafayette was stunned when on July 23, 2015 a man named John Houser opened fire inside of the Grand 16 theatre on Johnston Street killing two beloved residents, Mayci Breaux and Jillian Johnson, and injuring another nine. Subsequently the theatre was closed for several months. During those renovations something unique happened to Lafayette. In wake of such devastation "Lafayette Strong," a slogan soon to be found on cars, businesses, front yards, and t-shirts, became the new face of our city. A stronger community was born full of citizens ready to care and commit to positivity and change. By the Grand's reopening in November, Lafayette had not been scarred by the devestation, but had been purified by fire.

Lafayette would demonstrate this new strength when on November 13, more tragedie struck half a world a way. A series of coordinated terrorist attacks occurred in Paris and its northern suburb, Saint-Denis. Beginning at 21:20 CET, three suicide bombers struck near the Stade de France in Saint-Denis, followed by suicide bombings and mass shootings at cafés, restaurants and a music venue in central Paris. The attackers killed 130 people, including 89 at the Bataclan theatre, where they took hostages before engaging in a stand-off with police. Another 368 people were injured, 80–99 seriously. Seven of the attackers also died. The world quickly responded with prayers and support, and Lafayette could not have proven its love to its ancestral country better. Rallies were held downtown, and donations were sent. 2015 proved to be a hard year, but Lafayette became stronger than ever.

Stage is Set

The stage is set, the judges are prepared, and the contestants are ready. It's that time of year again. Time to crown the newest title holder of Miss UL Lafayette. All of this year's competitors shone with beauty and confidence, but only one caught the eye of the panel. Ladies and gentlemen, this year's Miss University of Louisiana at Lafayette 2016 is Ms. Kristal Breaux. Kristal was crowned by last year's Miss UL 2015, Krista Toussant on the evening of March 15th. She will now go on to represent UL and compete for the title of Miss Louisiana at the Miss Louisiana USA pageant this upcoming fall. The psychology major is an active member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority on the UL Lafayette campus. Along with earning the grand title of Miss UL 2016, Krista also received recognition after winning both the swimsuit portion of the pageant and most photogenic. When asked about how she felt representing UL in her new role she said, "To be awarded the prestigious honor of Miss UL means so much more to me than the title itself. It means not only the success achieved by hard work, determination, and confidence, but also the opportunity to leave a legacy for future students as well as the University. As Miss UL I will do my best to serve as an exceptional ambassador for the University and use my reign to accomplish as much community service as possible across Lafayette and beyond. I cannot wait to see what this experience as in store for me. I know it will not only make me a better competitor, but also a wonderful role model for younger girls." Krista Breaux, your Miss UL 2016, is beautiful inside and out.

Get "Rec"ed

Student fitness coordinator Kristin Gundy has been integrally involved within the life of Bourgeois Hall for the last three years. She has organized conventions, rounded up instructors, and brought what we call REC sports to an impressive new level. As she leaves to take another job in Colorado, she tearfully says, ""Working at UL has been such a fun experience. The culture and student involvement in it made this place feel like home. Its been an expe-rience that I am happy to have great memories of to take with me on my next adventure."

Her sentiments refLect the overall tone of the unique health club for free use by the students and faculty of UL Lafayette. Classes such as "Butts and Guts," "X-flt," "Ragin' Abs," "Ashtanga Yoga," "Cycling," "Funky Fusion," and "Zumba," all offer Festival International de Louisiane is an event which draws people of all nationalities to come and celebrate life and culture through dancing, food, and music. Located throughout downtown Lafayette, this year's Festival International served as a reminder for the students of UL Lafayette of just how unique and celebratory our wonderful city is.

Juliane Mahoney, a music enthusiast and senior majoring in Biology, said, "Festival always reminds me of just show special Lafayette is. Where else can you go down the street to hear music from around the world for free?" Anna Katherine Devitt, an avid Festival International goer and senior in public relations, noted, "Festival International is my favorite time of the year. There is something about seeing everyone you know downtown listening and dancing to good music that fills your heart and shows what a strong community Lafayette has. It gets better every year!"

As Festival ended and students returned to their books to prepare for the ×nal weeks of school, they undoubtedly did so with a feeling of awe which Festival International provides. In a perfect exhibition of the culture and music our city holds so dear, this year's Festival International de Louisiane is one to be remembered.

The Happiest Place

Lafayette was named one of the "Top Ten Happiest places," by the New York Times this year. Despite the traffic and sometimes unpredictable weather, most would attest to that fact. There are festivals scattered throughout the year, fresh farmers markets every Saturday morning, theatre and performances in the parks during the summer, and you can always get your Cajun music fix at Cajun Jam on Wednesday nights at the Blue Moon.

Festivals Acadiens et Créoles, held on the grounds of Girard Park, is one that is well-loved among locals and people from all over the country alike. Music, dancing, crafts, food, and culture abounded at this year's Festivals Acadiens et Créoles.

The 2015 Festivals Acadiens celebrated the 250th year since the Acadians were exiled from Nova Scotia and began making their way to what is now known as the Acadiana region. Among the many attractions at the festival was an art exhibit displaying pieces about the exile of the Acadians. Throughout Girard Park were different stages with Zydeco and Cajun music being played while people danced and enjoyed themselves. Jam Ça, a tent where people could join in and play along with the band, hosted the Angelle Aces, UL's very own Cajun ensemble, on the last day of Festivals Acadiens. Juliane Mahoney, a guitar player for the Angelle Aces and a Biology major here at UL, said, "This year was the first time I played at the Jam Ça tent. It's a lot of fun jamming with a bunch of happy Cajuns!"

Cajun culture was evident throughout the festival. Food, family, and fun are the ingredients to happy people, and we have all three here in Lafayette in abundance. No wonder we're one of the happiest places to live on Earth.

Brandon Gumpert, a senior majoring in English and Industrial Technology, said, "I really liked how Festivals Acadiens represented not only the traditional Cajun culture, but also present day Cajun culture. I saw a few bands play that really blended both the new and the old cultures. I thought it was awesome, and I love that Cajun culture is still evolving and growing."

The Famer's Market takes place every Saturday morning from eight to noon at the Horse Farm on Johnston Street.

Something Extra

Situated between spring break and finals week, this year's Lagniappe Week offered one of the spring semester's last hurrahs for the students and faculty of UL Lafayette. Lagniappe, which means a little something extra, is precisely what the week delivered as crawfish and good times abounded.

Lagniappe Week this year consisted of many special events, including canoe and crawfish races, the Lake Jump, and Rock the Swamp. Perhaps the most notable event of the week was UL's famous crawfish boil where 10,000 pounds of crawfish were served near the Union. Mark Mallory, a junior majoring in history and political science, said, "Lagniappe Week is just what its name suggests - a little something extra to help students get through the end of the semester. I seriously appreciated the craw×sh boil happening on campus this year, because I could attend on my way to class."

Unique to UL Lafayette, Lagniappe Day contributes to what makes our university so special. With full bellies and happy hearts, this year's Lagniappe Week prepared students for the hard work which finals week promised.

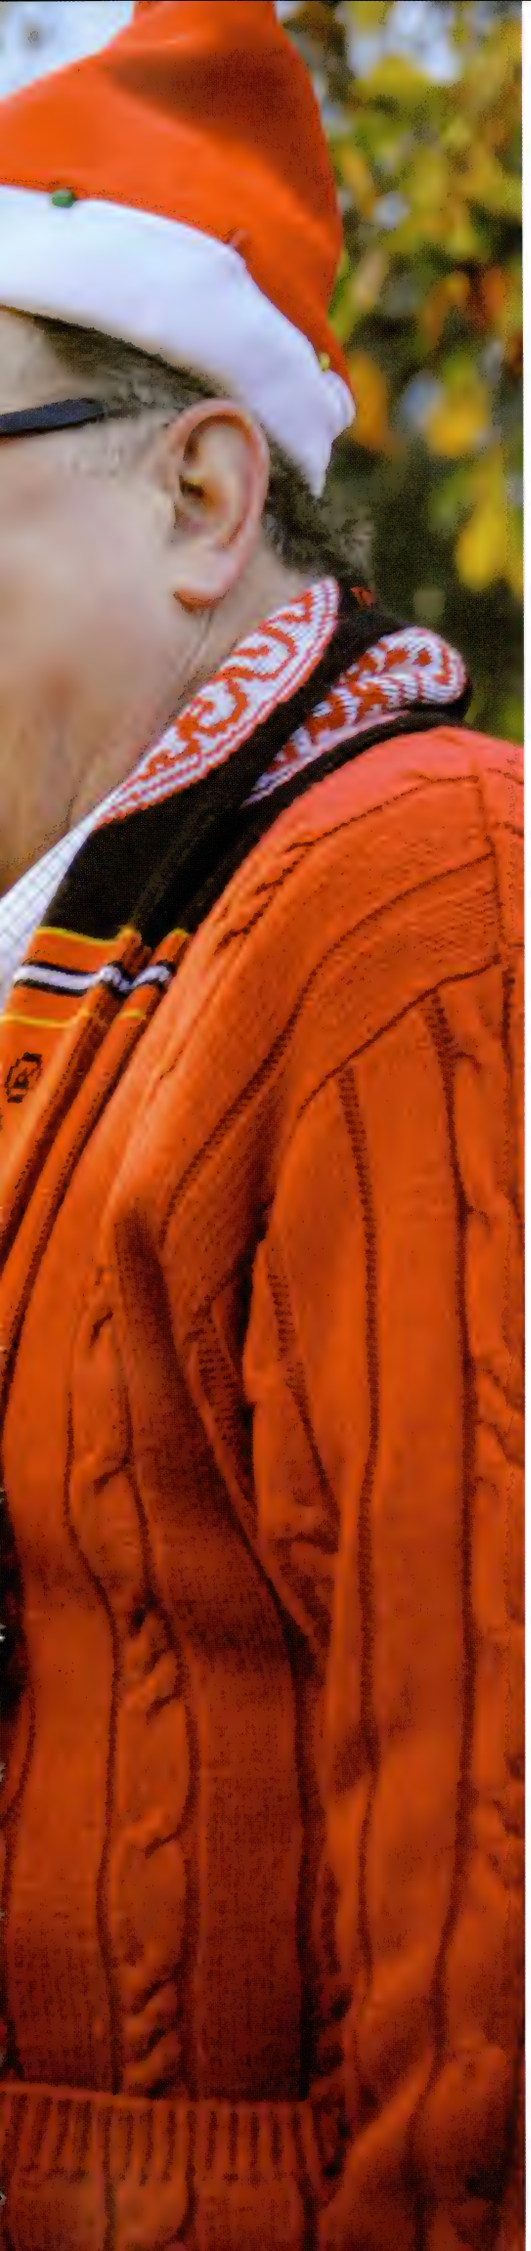

Sneaux Day

Snow? In South Louisiana? Yes, the idea is far-fetched and outrageous, but there is something a Cajun can do to fIx that. Sneaux Day 2015, held on Wednesday, December 2nd, was a successful day of snow enjoying, snowman building, and hot chocolate drinking. Faculty, staff, students, and locals gathered together in Martin Circle in order to enjoy a lil' Ragin' Cajun Louisiana Christmas with one another. Throughout the event individuals enjoy activities such as snowball fIghts, snowmen making contest, eating delicious bowls of jambalaya, and a viewing of the popular holiday comedy, ELF. But what's Christmas without a visit from the Big Man himself? That's right, St. Nicholas couldn't resist the Cajun spirit and dropped in to enjoy a heaping bowl of some good smelling Louisiana cuisine. Also, our dear UL Lafayette President, Dr. Savoie and his family, opened the doors to their home to share memories and their time with their extended Ragin' Cajun family. The snow may not have been the real deal, but the smiles and laughs defInitely were. What better way to spend a Ragin' Cajun Christmas than at the annual Sneaux Day?

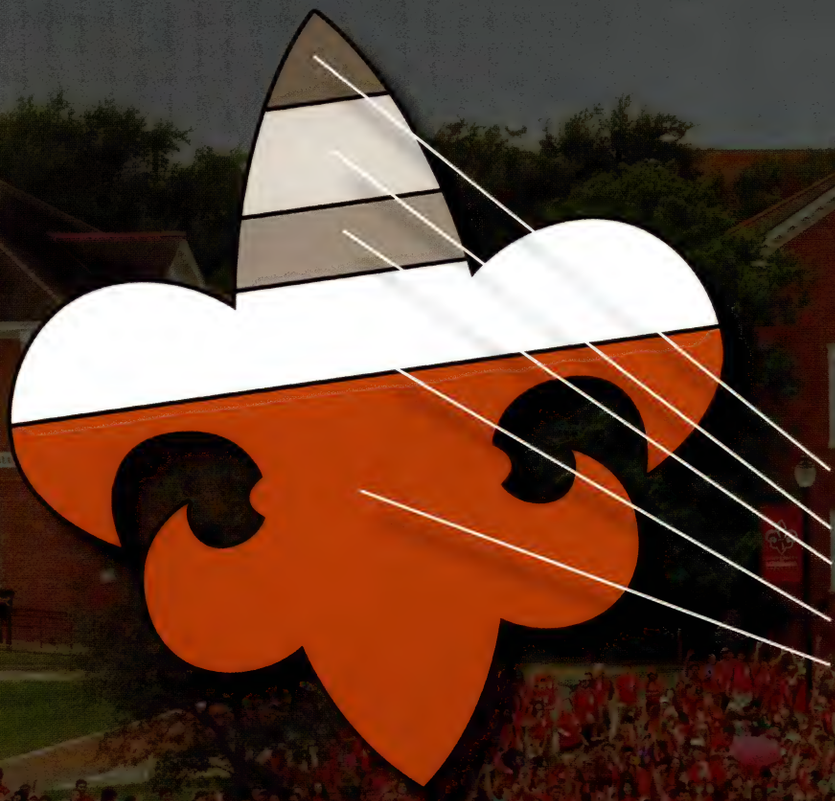

Campus Diversity

Once upon a Modern Family...

15,870 Students Enrolled in the University for the 2015 Fall Semestar

In Fall 2015, there were 15,870 undergraduate students enrolled at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Our undergraduate students come from various racial and ethnic backgrounds.

Worth Watching

Thanks to UL's Music Department our campus is home to the sounds of beautiful music. The department, housed in Angelle Hall, serves as the creative outlet to the many musicians that call our campus home. On any given day, if you listen closely enough, you can hear the sounds of a sweet saxophone or delicate piano fllling the air. When they aren't providing tunes for their peers, students in the music department work together to put on amazing shows for the surrounding Lafayette community and beyond. This past year the department has brought the sounds of the world to the backdoor of Cajun Country.

Past events hosted by the department have included: Of Ebony Embers; Vignettes of the Harlem Renaissance, seen on the Angelle Hall stage this past January 22. The show was a chamber music theater work celebrating the lives of prominent African American poets Langston Hughes, Countee Cullen and Claude McKay. Another event, Ragin' Roots hosted on November 11, featured multiple students showcasing unique genres specifIc to Louisiana, Cajun and Zydeco, and bluegrass music. With captivating performances and foot-tapping beats, UL's own Cajun and Zydeco music ensembles played throughout the year for students and faculty to enjoy. Also, from time to time, our own Ragin' Cajuns took a break from performing in order to let a few other talented musicians take the stage. Guest musicians have included Myrna Setiawan and Chan Kiat Lim.

With so many differing genres to offer and various talents to showcase; it's always a worthwhile show when put on by UL's music department.

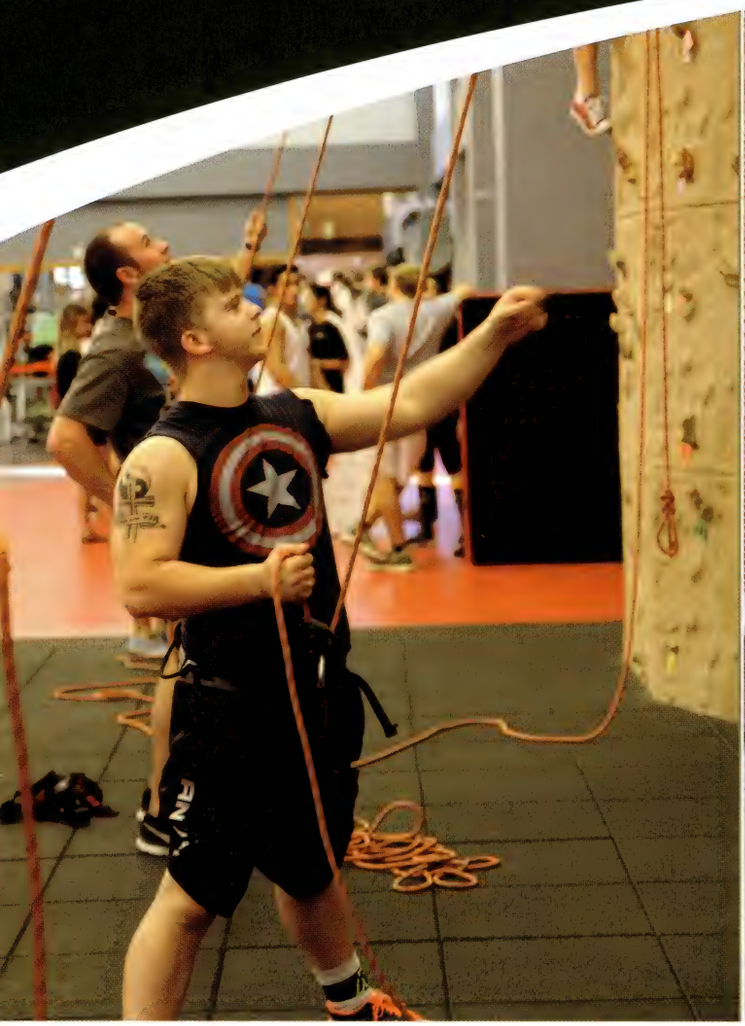

Orchestra members wore their Halloween costumes to the Annual Halloween Concert. Musical highlights of this year's concert included: Holst-Mars, Mussorgsky-Night on Bald Mountain, Williams-Music from the original Star Wars (Episode 4), Music from the film Psycho, excerpts from Tchaikovsky- Swan Lake, A new orchestral arrangement written by UL student Dylan Hebert that contains themes from: Isle of the Dead, Toccata and Fugue in D minor, and Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata. Guest appearances by the Star Wars Rebel and 501st Legions, UL Women's Choir, UL Dance Department and UL School of Music Faculty. It's a great way to celebrate the holiday in a fun and entertaining way.

REC

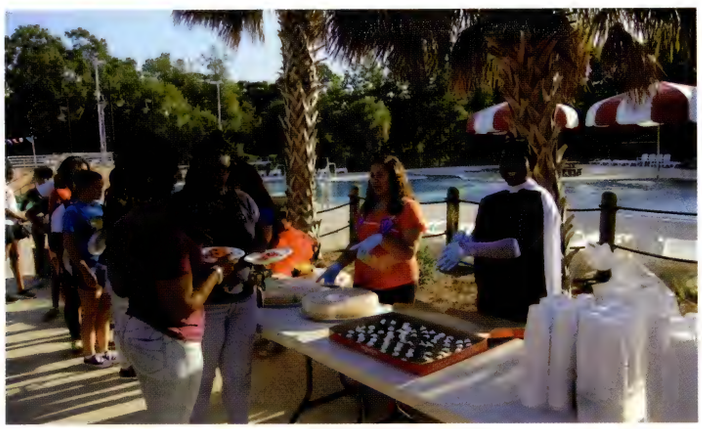

Hosted yearly at Bourgeois Hall, Rec Fest showcases what the semester will offer in terms of intramurals, training classes, club sports, and the fltness and aquatic centers. This year's theme? SUPER HEROES. Event hosters donned their favorite super hero costumes and encouraged their fellow students to have a super time getting healthy and having fun during their semesters. "I look forward to Rec Fest every year," said Nicholas Rosato, a junior majoring in English here at UL Lafayette. He continued, "Students and faculty have an awesome resource given to us through the fltness facilities, and I would like to see more people utilize it."

The evening started out at six with free dinner and desserts. From there students were able to engage in a range of competitions and activities such as a poboy eating contest, zumba, rock climbing, volleyball, jump rope challenges, and even a swim race using only an alligator shaped balloon.

The highlight of the event was the Cajun Color Run for the flrst three hundred attendees. Students ran around the nearby walking track while staff members of Bourgeois hall and Rec Sports pelted them with colored powder. Junior Darien Nichols comments, "My favorite part of the color run was the giant group picture at the end when we got to throw up gallons of powder. It was beautiful!" There is no doubt that everyone left Rec Fest fllthy and excited about the new semester!

Lil' Wayne

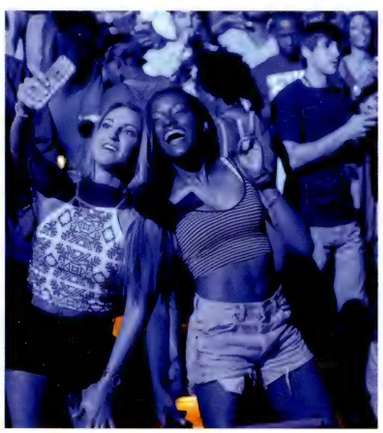

Lil Wayne performed at the Cajundome on April 18 in a collaboration with TIDAL for the college target philanthropy project. Under the campaign "Social Wave For Change," The program gives people the opportunity to come together for positive cause. About 50 schools across the nation entered the contest for a chance to win. Narrowed down to six schools, the University of Louisiana at Lafayette won the final standings on March 15. The Zeta Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. won the contest by donating water collected through a water drive to the Flint water crisis in Michigan. "We collected roughly 7,000 bottles of bottled water for the people of Flint," said fraternity member Bryan Guidry.

"I got a link to pass it to the chapter and students, and we just hopped on," said chapter president Trevon Oliver. Students and faculty members donated water and cash to the drive.

On March 15, Lil Wayne announced UL Lafayette's victory on a HuffIngton Post column, "I'm psyched to announce University of Louisiana – Lafayette as the winning university," the rapper wrote. "I can't wait to head over there on April 18 to thank these young individuals for all the work they put in to do some good for the needy. I'm pumped to put on an epic performance, which will also be live streamed on TIDAL.com for all y'all to see!"

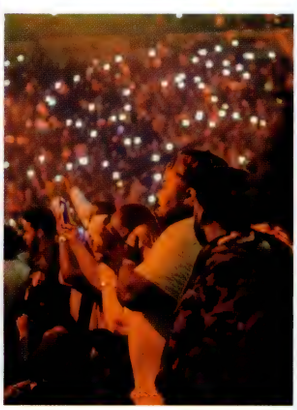

With the Cajun Dome packed to capacity, students, faculty, and staff alike enjoyed the concert despite it being on a weekday night. (Story by The Vermilion)

Sylvana Okde pictured left said the following about the concert, "The Lil' Wayne concert was so dope! We had a blast and were so excited he came to our school! What a great way to end the semester!"

No Cookie Left Behind

The number of bake sales on campus has been rapidly increasing in the recent semesters. Bake sales are an easy and common way to raise funds for a club or organization, and a variety of organizations – academic, recreational, and Greek- have used this method in the recent semesters.

On average, there are at least two bake sales held a week, but sometimes that number can get up to flve. Most bake sales are held either on Rex Street, the lobby of Moody, or the Union courtyard.

Some bake sales have become annual, such as Students for the Advancement of Women's Wage Gap bake sale, or Black Male Leadership's Classic Munchies.

The increasing number of bake sales can be attributed to the opening of the new student union as well. "The number of bake sales have increased exponentially since the opening of the new student union," said Associate Dean of Students Heidie Lindsey.

"We do these to continue our organization, and so that we can continue to give scholarships to our members," says Danielle Castelle of IMA.

With the continued growth of both the physical campus as well as the student body, it can be safe to say that bake sales will become customary on campus, as it is now become the standard form of fundraising at UL Lafayette.

"We chose to do a bakesale because everyone loves sweets. We had some guy out here at ten this morning like, 'Yes! I'm so excited!'. The university actually told us not to do a bakesale because there are so many on campus. So we got creative with cake balls and oreo balls!"

Giving Love, Acceptance, Safet
Drag Queen

With the new school year in full swing, UL Lafayette's own LGBT+ and straight ally organization on campus, GLASS, put on an evening of drag for their fellow students. GLASS, which stands for Giving Love, Acceptance, Safety and Support, work together as a group to promote the alliance between different genders and sexual identities. This year's seventh annual GLASS drag show held on November third at Angelle Hall welcomed a large turnout of excited students. Hosted by well-known student and drag queen Santana Pilar Andrews, the night was fIlled with energetic performances and passionate performers. Two performers took home the titles of Queen and King GLASS. Giscelle Galaxy was crowned Queen GLASS and Mr. Cradlerobber took home the title of King GLASS. One performer from the night stated, "These people were like family to me and being in the drag show made us that much closer. This was a big step in supporting GLASS and the LGBT community and I'm proud to say that I participated in the show." Not only does the GLASS organization put on the annual UL drag show but they also take part in a multitude of community service projects and work hand-in-hand with the Acadiana Pride Festival. Taylor Casbon, another participant in the organization declared, "I joined GLASS to be a straight ally because I support the LGBT community. I am so happy I joined. I met a multitude of amazing people through this organization."

Le Musée D'art De Hillard

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette has a lot to offer its students. However, often many of those opportunities go unnoticed. A wonderful example of one of these lost Cajun treasures is the Paul and Lulu Hilliard Art Museum. Located right on the outskirts of main campus, the Hilliard museum has an abundance of culture to offer its community and student body. The museum houses hundreds of pieces of artwork both local and national that people of all backgrounds can find some connection to. Guided tours are often available but guests are free to roam throughout the museum. The building and staff provide an open minded atmosphere with a clean and relaxed feel. Students receive free admission into the museum with their student I.D. and are welcome to come in and study in the open lounge where coffee is also available. The new curator, Jolie Johnson, says "I just want students to know that we are part of campus and that we are here for them." A welcoming environment and a friendly staff made up mostly by student workers, sets this museum apart from most, making it another unique treat for the ULL student body.

Mr. & Miss International Pageant

Thursday, April 14 is a day that will forever be remembered by Annie Vu and Steven Nguyen. Annie was crowned UL's Ms. International 2016 and Steven gained the title of UL's Mr. International 2016. Although they were both honored with the winning titles of the night, all of the participants of the Mr. and Ms. International pageant were winners in the end.

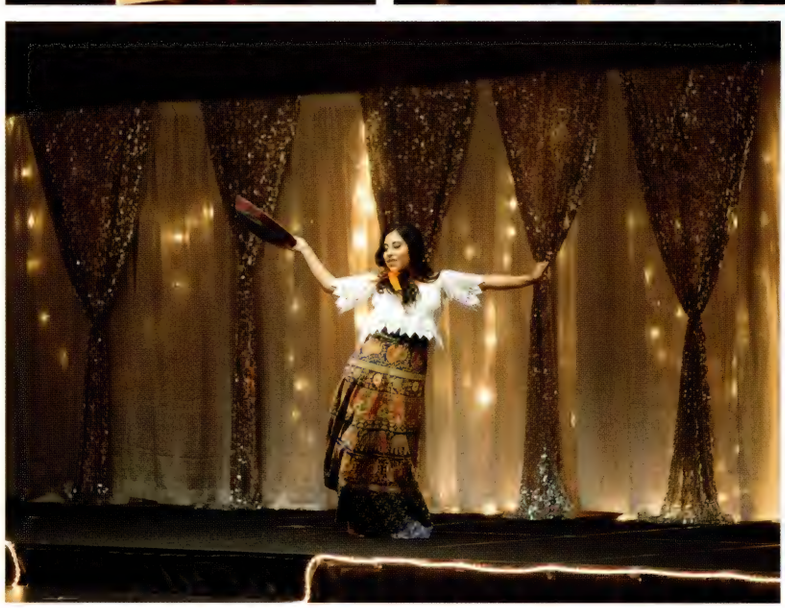

For weeks five beautiful young ladies and handsome young men practiced their stage walks, prepared their talents, and shared with the International Student Council and other participants of the unique customs that their countries have to offer. When it came time for the big night, ten countries and ten confident students were well represented on the stage. The traditional wear portion started off the night and gave audience members a glimpse into the customary traditions of such places like Nigeria, Vietnam, India, Ecuador, and Malaysia. Next, such parts of the show like talent, formal wear, and question and answer allowed the contestants to share their personal style and distinguished personalities with the judges.

By the time crowning came around each had proved that they were worthy of the titles of Mr. and Ms. International in their own right. Yet, only two could hold the prestigious titles, but that didn't keep others from winning titles. Camilia Lee Ling Jia from Malaysia received the title of Ms. Congeniality. Brendan Tobing, of Indonesia, took home Mr. Congeniality. Anu Osibo, a student representing Nigeria, landed the title of Ms. Photogenic and the king himself, Steven Nguyen a participant from Metairie, took home Mr. Photogenic.

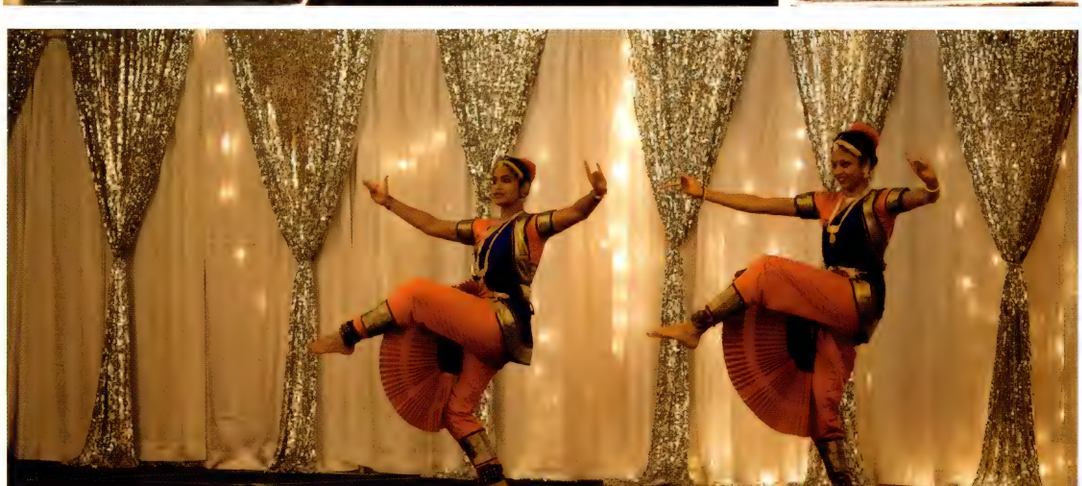

All in all, the contestants believe that the pageant taught them many valuable lessons about themselves. Kai Song said, "From the pageant I take away that it's best to learn, adapt, and do your best." Likewise, Sherin Jolly, representing her home country of India, stated, "I never in a million years thought I would ever do a pageant, but I am glad I did. It helped me come out of my comfort zone and face my fears of going on stage." These ten contestants proved that UL's international student community has much diversity and culture to offer to our campus.

Greeks

National Panhellenic Council

The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Inc. (NPHC), is currently composed of nine (9) International Greek letter Sororities and Fraternities: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. NPHC promotes interaction through forums, meetings and other media for the exchange of information and engages in cooperative programming and initiatives through various activities and functions. "Unanimity of thought and action as far as possible in the conduct of Greek letter collegiate fraternities and sororities, and to consider problems of mutual interest to its member organizations." Early in 1937, the organization was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and became known as "The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated."

Interfraternity Council

Joining a fraternity is one of the best ways to become involved on campus and also in the community. The Greek system here at UL Lafayette strongly promotes leadership, loyalty, respect, friendship and, of course, brotherhood. By joining a fraternity, you will gain lifelong friendships with others who have chosen to become Greek as well. By becoming Greek, I have excelled tremendously, both socially and academically. I can say joining a fraternity was one of the best decisions I have ever made, and I hope you will do the same.

I know that you will enjoy everything that Greek life has to offer. The experience will not only enrich your college career, but also help shape your future in order for you to be successful. I am glad that you have chosen to join the Ragin' Cajun community and I am looking forward to meeting you next semester.

- Interfraternity Council President

Panhellenic Council

The UL Panhellenic Council is made up of 6 member and 2 associate member organizations: Sigma Sigma Sigma, Kappa Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Delta Delta, Phi Mu, Alpha Delta Pi, Gamma Rho Lambda, and Sigma Lambda Gamma. These eight organizations work together to promote Panhellenic love and unity among their members by promoting Geauxing Greek, having Panhellenic events each semester, and by supporting events hosted by member organizations such as open recruitment and through participation in annual philanthropy events. The 6 member organizations welcome new members each fall with Formal Recruitment, and the associate members recruit during the year when they need new members. The Panhellenic Council works with the Interfraternity Council and the National Pan-Hellenic Council during UL's Greek Week and also with many philanthropic events and social gatherings.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated was founded on December 4th, 1906 at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York by 7 founders who are commonly referred to as "The Jewels". The Zeta Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated was the First Black Greek Lettered Fraternity charted on the campus of USL on May 5th, 1968. By staying true to the Aims of the fraternity, "Manly Deeds, Scholarship, and Love For All Mankind", the chapter has de×nitely make a mark on the campus. Some accomplishments include: First Black SGA President, First Black SGA Vice President, only 5 star Alpha Chapter in the state of Louisiana, and countless GPA, Greek Hall of Fame, and community service awards. Most recently, the chapter was ranked 8th in the nation amongst all Alpha chapters in active members and 2nd for active members on a predominately white campus. Also, because of the outpouring success of a Flint, Michigan water drive sponsored by the chapter, the University received a free Lil Wayne Concert sponsored by Tidal music streaming service.

Receiving 5 Stars of Greek Excellence for 2015 gave the Epsilon Beta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated another reason, among many, to be proud.

However, pride is not the only emotion shared among this competitive young group of sisters. The Epsilon Beta Chapter gave much of their time and care this year to serving the Lafayette community in any way possible, especially through their signature mentoring program for high school students, A.S.C.E.N.D. Due to their commitment of service to ALL mankind, the chapter was honored at Greek Awards for Most Outstanding Community Service Project, as well as being awarded Outstanding Service/Volunteer Program at Ragin' Recognition.

In addition to serving the community, these ladies are very involved on campus. There are members of the National Society of Leadership and Success, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Orientation Leaders, SOUL Camp Mentors, University Program Council Committee Chairs, & the 2015 Student Government Association President.

The ladies of Alpha Kappa Alpha uphold their motto, "by culture and by merit," 108 years later by continuing to possess high ethical and moral standards.

Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity is one of the largest men's general fraternities in North America with more than 260,000 initiated members and more than 200 active chapters at colleges and universities. It was the first fraternity to eliminate pledging in the early 1970s, and it remains a leader in the fight against hazing, alcohol abuse, drugs, and other challenges facing today's college student.

Lambda Chi Alpha serves as a co-curricular experience to complement higher education by providing young men with opportunities for academic achievement, leadership development, and lifelong friendships.

Here at the University of Louisiana-Lafayette, we were founded on May 5, 1962 by Iota-Omega 1, Donald Ray Bealer. Since then, we've remained in good standing with the university, and have never been thrown off campus. At the Iota Omega chapter, we've initiated 850 men since our founding.

Every semester we have Brotherhood retreats and events. We participate in IFC and intramural sports such as Football, Basketball, and Softball. In Fall 2008, we were IFC football champs. We have bid night parties at the beginning of each semester, as well as BBQ's that are usually weekly. We have semesterly philanthropies such as Watermelon Bust, the Duck Race for the Boys & Girls club of Acadiana, and Walk a Mile in Her Shoes.

Alpha Omicron Pi has been challenging, inspiring and motivating collegiate women to "Exceed the Expectation" since 1897 through charity, sisterhood and academic prowess. From 2015-2016, UL Lafayette's Delta Beta chapter welcomed 60 new sisters into its chapter with ecstatic, vibrant events such as sisterhood retreat and cheering its sisters on throughout any and all of their ventures. Its sisters are leaders in organizations such as Peer Mentors, Student Orientation Staff and SOUL Camp, and many members from the chapter seek roles in these organizations — and more — following joining the sisterhood. This year, AOII raised money for its national philanthropy, Juvenile Arthritis Research, through activities such as Spike Out Arthritis, giveback nights and Delta Beta's inaugural Rose Week! During this week, AOII held events such as yoga night, a rose sale and Pie-a-pi. Outside of its national philanthropy, the sisters of Alpha-O gave back to its Cajun community through events including but not limited to The Big Event, Louisiana Special Olympics, Relay for Life and Out of the Darkness Walks for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Phi Beta Sigma

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C., January 9, 1914. The fraternity was founded by three young African-American male students. The Founders, Most Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Leonard F. Morse, and Charles I. Brown. These 3 young men wanted to create a fraternity that was based on our ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service. Brothers, today, exemplify these ideas and live by our motto "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity".

Today, Phi Beta Sigma has blossomed into an international organization of leaders. No longer a single entity, members of the Fraternity have been instrumental in the establishment of the Phi Beta Sigma National Foundation, the Phi Beta Sigma Federal Credit Union and The Sigma Beta Club Foundation. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, founded in 1920 with the assistance of Phi Beta Sigma, is the sister organization of the Fraternity.

The Infamous Iota Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded on the campus of University of Southwestern Louisiana in the fall of 1976. Over the years the chapter has crossed over 500 members. The chapter is now headed by the president, Brother Alfred Felix. The chapter have seen its share of great young men who not only made a difference here at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, but also around the Lafayette community. The Iota Iota Chapter will always live by our brother A.M walker's famous words towards sigma "I will Harold and defend it even against the world".

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded by twenty-two collegiate women on January 13, 1913 at Howard University. These women promoted academic excellence and provided assistance to those in need. The First public act performed by the founders was their participation in the Women's Suffrage March in Washington D.C. in March of 1913. This organization was the First African American sorority to serve the community outside of campus. This trailblazing act set a platform for other organizations to come together and fellowship.

The major programs of this Sorority are based upon the organization's Five-Point Programmatic Thrusts. They consist of the following: Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement.

In April 1971, an undergraduate chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was charted on the campus of University of Southwest Louisiana (now the University of Louisiana at Lafayette). The Theta Xi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority recently celebrated its 45 year university. One of the biggest accomplishments of the Theta Xi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta is being the only National Panhellenic Council organization with a sorority house on UL- Lafayette's Sorority row.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha is a greek social fraternity under the Inter-Fraternity Council here at the University of Louisiana-Lafayette. It's comprised of over 100 members who uphold its morals, values, and represent SLAG, or Scholars, Leaders, Athletes, and Gentleman. This fraternity promotes high ideals and brotherhood, and has been successful in achieving its goals. Pi Kappa Alpha ranks among the top in intramural athletics, community service hours performed, philanthropy dollars raised, and has won UL Homecoming for the past 4 years.

University of Louisiana
at Lafayette

The 2015-2016 school year for the Gamma Kappa Chapter of Kappa Delta was ×lled with sisterhood, academics, philanthropy and school spirit! In the fall, we welcomed our largest new member class of 77 women. Our new members brought so much excitement and fun into our sisterhood.

During Homecoming week, the Kappa Deltas cheered on the University to the theme of "Ragin Cajun Strong". Our hard work paid off as we were awarded the Homecoming sweepstakes award! Not only did we celebrate our University during this week, but also our sisters on the Homecoming Court! Annie Briley reigned as Homecoming Queen and Mary Katherine Chiasson as Homecoming Maid. Both women have given so much to this chapter, each serving two years on our executive council. Annie and Mary Katherine not only represented the University well, but also our organization, showing what it means to be a Kappa Delta lady. We could not be any prouder of all they accomplished!

Luckily for us, the excitement did not end there for Kappa Delta! During Greek Awards in the spring, our chapter received the 5 star chapter award and had the highest GPA out of the National Panhellenic Conference sororities on campus.

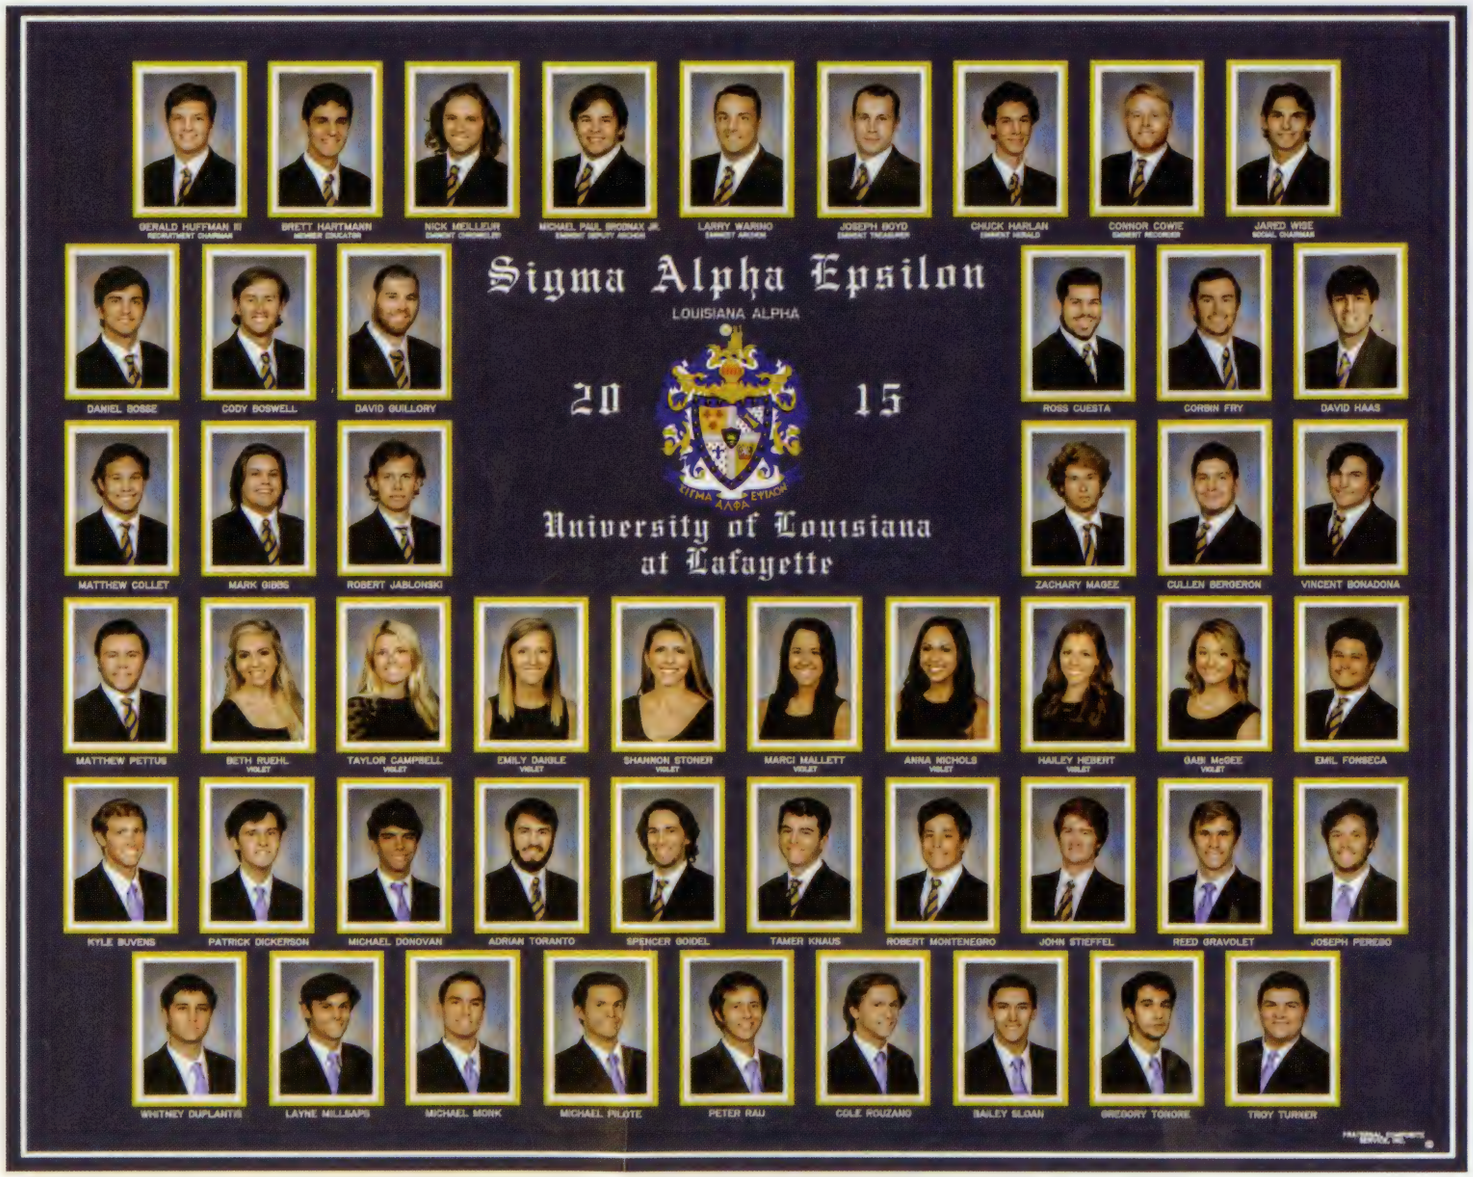

Philanthropy is such an important aspect of what we do as Kappa Deltas! During our week long philanthropy event, known as Shamrock Week, we raised money by hosting a spaghetti dinner, giveback night and a carnival. Our chapter raised over $31,000! 20% of the money raised was donated to Prevent Child Abuse America and the other 80% was donated locally to Faith House. Supporting efforts to prevent child abuse is such a rewarding experience for us!

This school year for the Gamma Kappa chapter was so memorable and we are ×lled with pride for all that was accomplished. With everything we do, our members truly live out Kappa Delta's open motto which is "let us strive for that which is honorable, beautiful and highest."

The True Gentleman

The Creed of Sigma Alpha Epsilon

The true gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not 1atter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feeling of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company; a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

In 1956, the Alpha Sigma chapter of Phi Mu Fraternity was founded on the basis of three ideals: love, honor, and truth. Now, fifty-nine years later, their bond is stronger than ever. Holding true to their ideals, the members of Phi Mu show their love and support throughout their campus and community with volunteer work, fundraisers, spirit rallies, and campus activities. Their numbers continue to rise as Alpha Sigma welcomed home eight new sisters during spring recruitment and ×fty-eight new sisters in fall recruitment. In total, the Alpha Sigma chapter of Phi Mu currently maintains one hundred and seventy-one members. Many of these members hold have various of×cer positions and are heavily involved in other organizations across our lovely university. We strive to not only be just a Phi Mu but also a proud Ragin' Cajun!

Phi Mu's national philanthropy is Children's Miracle Network Hospital. UL Lafayette's Alpha Sigma chapter specifically donates to the St. Francis Cabrini branch of CMNH in Alexandria, LA. Phi Mu hosts two main philanthropic events in which all proceeds benefit the CMNH hospitals: the annual "Kickin' for Kids" Kickball Tournament raised $5,127.46 and the "Big Man on Campus" pageant raised $6,938.03. The members also arranged a hospital visit to St. Francis Cabrini for its members to put in perspective where the money they work so hard for goes. The members of Phi Mu grow closer together through this shared passion and drive to help others.

Excellence

In our second full year since chartering, The Lambda Psi Chapter of Sigma Chi has continued to perform at excellent standards on campus. UL Lafayette has awarded us a five-star chapter award for the second year in a row, and founding brother Austin O'Connor was inducted into our Greek Hall of Fame. Our campus leadership remains positive, with members participating in Student Orientation, SOUL Camp, IFC, SGA, Student Leadership Council, and more.

Over the summer, we attended our annual Balfour Leadership Training Workshop at Bowling Green University in Ohio; at which The Sigma Chi International Fraternity awarded us with a Legion of Honor award for our high academic achievement. We also Sent Brother Austin O'Connor to San Diego, California to attend Sigma Chi's Grand Chapter; at which Sigma Chi undergrads and alumni delegates propose legislation, elect new Grand Officers, and the new International Sweetheart. Brother Andrew Albritton was chosen to intern at Sigma Chi's Horizons Leadership Summit this summer in Snowbird, Utah. Brother Ross Albritton was also chosen as a participant for Horizons this summer, a privilege that only 240 sigs out of the entire undergrad population of Sigma Chi can experience every year.

From humble beginnings, the Lambda Psi Chapter will only continue to grow as leaders here in Lafayette and we are excited to see what the future holds.

Sigma Sigma Sigma, also known as Tri Sigma, was founded on April 20, 1898 at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia. The Alpha Mu Chapter is one of 109 national collegiate chapters. The Alpha Mu Chapter was founded at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 1931. Tri Sigma was the First sorority established at UL Lafayette. The women of Tri Sigma hold true to Five values: wisdom, power, faith, hope, and love. These women strive to been strong women with high standards of conduct. Tri Sigmas are proud Ragin' Cajuns. Many of the members of the Alpha Mu Chapter are involved in other organizations and are leaders on campus.

Tri Sigma has a vision to change the world through philanthropic efforts. Tri Sigma's national philanthropy is the Sigma Sigma Sigma Foundation. This foundation supports child's play therapy, scholarships for members, and educational opportunities for women. The Alpha Mu Chapter is proud to also support a local philanthropy, D.R.E.A.M.S. Foundation of Acadiana. This past year, the Alpha Mu Chapter raised more than $20,000 for these philanthropies, by hosting a Chili Cook-off and Dodgeball Tournament. The Alpha Mu Alumnae Chapter is also proud to have been awarded a grant to Women and Children's Hospital for child's play therapy.

Sigma Nu Description: Sigma Nu fraternity was founded on this campus in 1963. Since then we have initiated over 1100 men into our ranks. We base ourselves of our 3 values which are love, honor, and truth. We strive to become something more everyday and have a blast while doing it. Since being rechartered on this campus in 2011, we have taken strides to become as great as we once were before with the help of our generous alumni and Greek faculty advisors!

Alpha Delta Pi

Established in 1851, Alpha Delta Pi is committed to sisterhood, values and ethics, high academic standards and social responsibility. There are currently 155 chapters in the United States and Canada, and on November 8, 2014, the Theta Phi chapter was installed at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Theta Phi supports their national philanthropy at the Ronald McDonald House of Greater New Orleans through house visits and events, such as our Mini Masters Golf Tournament. Since its partnership began in 1979, Alpha Delta Pi has contributed more than 10 million dollars to the Ronald McDonald House Charities. Theta Phi also supports local organizations, such as Hearts of Hope, Women's and Children's Hospital, Healing House, and St. Joseph's Diner. We have placed in both Homecoming Week and Greek Week, even having a member on Homecoming Court. We won Sigma Chi's Derby Days and were nominated for several awards at Ragin Recognition. Nationally, we won awards for Finance Improvement, Total Membership Education Improvement and Most Dollars Raised for Ronald McDonald House Charities. The past year and a half has been wonderful, and we are looking forward to many more.

Theta Xi

The Alpha Omicron chapter of Theta Xi was founded on Southwestern's campus on May 26th, 1946 (first nationally recognized greek organization on campus) . Our founder was Dr. Zeke L. Lotin from the Alpha Alpha chapter at LSU. We were then rechartered on April 25th, 2009. Our colors are azure blue and silver and our lower is the Blue Iris. The motto of Theta Xi is Juncti Juvant; "United they Serve." The Alpha Omicron chapter has a huge alumni base with many still living in the Lafayette area. Also many of our Theta Xi brothers have been presidents of the University, and many of our buildings are named after them including H.L. Grifn Hall and Clyde L. Rougeou Hall. In the past few years we have been recognized for our recruitment. Alpha Omicron is very involved in philanthropy and we have been recognized in for our efforts in the past. Our main philanthropic focuses are Habitat for Humanity and Multiple Sclerosis. We also go to and hold many events every semester like Crawfish Boil, socials with sororities, tailgating during football season, camping trips, and intramural sports.

The Phi Nu chapter of Delta Delta Delta at University of Louisiana at Lafayette had a great year full of development and achievements.

In the fall, we welcomed out biggest pledge class yet. We were once again awarded as a Five star chapter.
Our chapter continues to go above and beyond raising money for our philanthropy, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Our various philanthropy events such as Delta Desserts, DHOP, Sincerely Yours, and very ×rst auction, have raised over $45,000. With the efforts of other chapters across the country, we are striving to raise $60 million in 10 years. Delta Delta Delta is helping to make sure no parent has to pay for their child's medical care.

Our members continue to be involved all over campus in organizations such as Order of Omega, Pre-Professional Society, Young Life, Ragin Cajun Catholics, Up Till Dawn, and many more. We have members involved in Student Government Association, SOUL Camp, Panhellenic Council executive board, and many more leadership positions. Tri Delta also continues to dominate in intramural sports, winning the championship games for soccer, basketball, and 1ag football. We came out victorious during this year's homecoming week winning best 1oat, banner, and homecoming week overall!

Tri Delta takes pride in the fact that we are such a diverse group of women who are able to come together. Our members have many different interests, gifts, and talents, yet we join together to serve a common purpose:
To promote strong womanly character, maintain a perpetual bonds of friendship, broaden moral and intellectual life, promote a relationship between the university and our organization, and develop qualities of leadership. Delta Delta Delta encourages its members to assume the highest responsibilities of college women.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated was founded on January 16, 1920 on the campus on Howard University. It was founded on the principles of Scholarship, Service, Sisterhood and Finer Womanhood. On January 7, 1977, the Omega Eta Chapter was chartered on UL Lafayette's campus. The Omega Eta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was voted Highest Ranked Sorority GPA for Fall of 2014 & 2015. They have continuously placed scholarship and service as their main priorities.

Since its inception, Zeta has continued its steady climb into the national spotlight with programs designed to demonstrate concern for the human condition both nationally and internationally. The organization has been innovative in that it has chronicled a number of fIrsts. It was the fIrst National Pan-Hellenic Council organization to centralize its operations in a national headquarters, fIrst to charter a chapter in Africa, ×rst to form auxiliary groups, and ×rst to be constitutionally bound to a fraternity, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. The sorority takes pride in its continued participation in transforming communities through volunteer services from members and its auxiliaries. Zeta Phi Beta has chartered hundreds of chapters worldwide and has a membership of 100,000+

The Sorority's international programs such as Z-HOPE (Zetas Helping Other People Excel) through Mind, Body and Spirit serve to empower people from all walks of life. As the sorority moves toward its centennial, it retains its original zest for excellence. It espouses the highest academic ideals and that has resulted in its members serving in groundbreaking roles in all ffelds of endeavor.

Academics

Academics

The Big Three

President Kirsten Allen

Kirsten Allen is an Athletic Training major here at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Originally from New Orleans, Kirsten now serves as the SGA President. Her inspiration to make a difference on this campus began her freshman year of college when the President and Vice President of SGA at the time took her under their wings. Since in office she has seen improvements and expansion in relationships among organizations and departments, for example UPC and SGA teaming up for home football game student tailgating this past 2015 season. She works tirelessly to see such enhancements given to the student experience here. When asked how this has impacted her personally, Kirsten said "This position has provided me with opportunities that I could have never imagined. I have built lifelong friendships with many people because of this position. Being around such a diverse group of people has made me into a better person."

Vice President Annie Briley

Annie Briley graduated in Fall 2015 with a degree in Marketing and is currently pursuing her MBA. Originally from Lafayette, Annie knew from the start that this was a position she wanted to step into. Eager to work with Kirsten and Chris, the current President and Treasurer, Annie jumped right in! While in office Annie says there was an amazing increase in SGA's presence among the student body, raising awareness of all they have to offer us. When asked how this position and organization has impacted her, she replied "It is an intense real-world job…Given my business background, I was able to see concepts from class come to life. Concepts from Marketing, Accounting, Finance, and Management are visited on a daily basis."

Treasurer Chris Rome

Chris Rome is an Insurance and Risk Management major here at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, and is currently serving as our SGA treasurer. Originally from Houma, Louisiana Chris became interested in running for this position when he was serving as Business Senator, and then as Senate Chair. He says it was there that he realized what an impact student government makes on this campus and in the everyday lives of all its students, and he wanted to be a part of it! Since in office Chris has seen an exponential and wonderful growth in the senate, as students are becoming closer and working together better than ever to improve this campus. When asked how this experience has personally impacted him, Chris replied "My view on the relationship between the student body and the administration. Having the opportunity to work at this University really provides insight on the processes that it takes to get something accomplished. It really makes you respect the administration when you realize how much you have to go through to make a change."

SGA

The student government association of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette is a body of students concerned with enriching our campus with increased opportunity for learning, leadership, and student engagement. SGA gives the students of this University the chance to speak up about changes being made around this campus and our community. The UL student government association also works to provide financial assistance for student organizations, individuals, and academic departments in their pursuit of furthering education and advancing academic programs. Weekly meetings are held to discuss issues and allow financial assistance for the before mentioned. Meetings are open to the entire academic community as well as the general public. Located in the new Student Union, SGA prides itself on being available for any requests and needs brought to them by the student body. The desire to better our university fuels their drive to continue initiating and implementing programs around campus.

Ragin' Recognition

Each year, student organizations and individuals are given the opportunity to apply for Ragin' Recognition awards. Organizations and individual student leaders may be recognized in the areas of service to campus, collaboration with the community, leadership, marketing efforts, recruitment, and programming. Individuals may be awarded with the President's Leadership Award, Advisor of the Year, and several class awards. Student Organizations and Individuals apply for each award and are then selected by a committee of University Officials. Awards are presented and celebrated near the end of each spring semester at the Ragin' Recognition Awards Banquet.

The event is sponsored by Student Leadership Council, Student Engagement & Leadership, and Communication and Marketing. Ragin' Recognition took place April 19th in the ballroom of the new union. This year's theme was "A Night at the Oscars."

It was a night of Glamour and celebration!

The University Honors Program

The honors program at the University of Louisiana Lafayette is home to over one-thousand academically decorated undergraduate students. The program was created in 1968 and was envisioned by its founder, Dr. Charles Cain, to be a platform to "provide opportunities for intellectual and cultural enrichment for gifted students." To this day, nearly 50 years later, the program seeks to continue this legacy on our campus.

Once a week, all honors students attend an hour-long seminar, led and presented by the students. At the beginning of each semester, the students in each seminar vote on which topics they wish to present. The topics are always interesting and unique, from superheroes to religion to architecture to informative how-to's. The students also take at least one honors course per semester. These classes provide a unique and personalized learning experience in most departments. The classes are typically small, between 8-20 students, ensuring an intimate classroom experience. These courses focus on developing critical thought processes in the subjects discussed, allowing students to expand their understanding of the subjects past the scope of a textbook.

As anyone who received any higher education knows, a good student is a well-rounded student. The program offers many events and community service opportunities for students throughout the year. Last year, honors students raised roughly ten-thousand dollars for orphans in Syria, Somalia and Iraq. In addition to the orphan outreach, the students raised a total of $3000 for various charities, including Book Aid International, Heat Walk and the Syrian Refuge Fund. Between the academics and philanthropy, the program hosts events throughout the year, including the annual Fall Mixer, "Coffee with a Professor" events, holiday parties and charity Mario Kart tournaments.

This awesome program has so much to offer! Check us out at honors.louisiana.edu or stop by Judice-Rickles hall for more information!

"Our program proudly continues a long-standing tradition of providing serious and highly motivated students with a unique set of intellectual and educational opportunities."

Bring Higher Education to All

As the 2016 year began newly elected Governor John Bel Edwards faced a monumental crisis-Louisiana sat deep within a $700-$750 million budget hole. Immediately plans were drawn up to initiate rescue. These included a $131 million proposed cut to higher education, including eradication of the TOPS Scholarship program. This cut would by all circumstances be large enough to fundamentally altar how colleges and universities would operate. On Monday, January 26 higher education leaders responded by outlining what type of actions they would have to take to absorb that type of reduction. UL in particular was looking at a form of university bankruptcy.

The Louisiana Council of Student Body Presidents (COSBP) called into action students, educators, citizens, and activists to rally on the steps of the capitol in Baton Rouge during an emergency session of the Louisiana Congress Wednesday, February 24th. The purpose was to bring awareness to the threat of severe budget cuts to higher education funding and to promote action by our state leaders to find long-term, sustainable funding for higher education in Louisiana. Over 2,000 students missed classes to attend the event and have their voices heard.

As it stands, on Tuesday May 10th of 2016 the Governor signed a permanent change to Louisiana's popular TOPS scholarship program stating that starting with the fall semester of 2017, TOPS awards will no longer automatically rise with tuition increases. Students and their families will be expected to pay the difference unless the Legislature votes to raise the TOPS award amount. Future changes to higher education remain to be seen, but students learned how to "Bring H.E.A.T." or rather bring higher education all together.

Proud Alma Mater

For four plus years students work towards one glorifying day. This day is full of ceremony, saturated with accolades, overwhelmed by pictures, and choreographed to the sounds of excited chatter and tearful congratulations. The undergraduates don their Cajun red robes. The masters students stand regal in their dark gowns, and the doctoral candidates proudly carry their velvet hoods. All march to a regal procession leading them into the heart of the Cajun dome. Over one thousand seats are fllled by scholars awaiting their degrees. The site is an impressive one, the kind that stirs up hope and inspires greatness.

The Fall commencement ceremony hosted an impressive 1,362 expecting student ensemble. Former Louisiana Ragin' Cajun quarterback Jake Delhomme visited his alma mater to give a stirring speech to the graduates on December 18, 2015. The spring graduation production included a record breaking number of degree earners totaling up to 1,676, and a speech from an amazingly successful Dr. Craig Walker-founder and president of The Cardiovascular Institute of the South on May 13, 2016. There he was also awarded by Dr. Savoie an honorary Doctorate of Nursing for his achievements.

With resounding fanfare and genuine hugs from their respective deans, every graduate made the University of Louisiana at Lafayette a proud Alma Mater.

Senior in University Studies, Elizabeth Yelverton, recounts her experience during her spring undergraduate graduation, "It was surreal thinking about how a journey that I thought would never end actually came and went in the blink of an eye! My favorite part was watching my parents cry because they were proud of me."

UL Lafayette is the only university in Louisiana to have one college devoted solely to artistic education and production in music and performing arts, visual arts, and design. We have undergraduate and master's programs, taught by faculty whose lives are devoted to creating, performing, and showcasing high quality Art. With us, you'll find your artistic voice and style, and gain the foundation you need to begin your career as a working artist.

"The best part of majoring in Visual Arts has been the community. Students in different concentrations cross paths in common classes and share ideas. We help each other with our projects. We can genuinely relate to each other."

Organizations

UL African Association

The African Student Association of UL is an organization that dates as far back 2002. Unfortunately, much of the history of the organization has been lost through the decade because of the period of years the organization was dormant. After several failed attempts in trying to find the previous officers, current president, Nelo Phiri along with the help of other African students took it upon themselves to re-establish the organization in the fall of 2014. African Student Association has now been recognized as an official organization for 2 straight semesters and we strive on keeping this organization running. We are a proud organization with approximately 40 members and growing. Our organization is dedicated to unifying the African student body within the University. We strive to spread cultural awareness throughout this institution, engage in serving our community, as well as educate about our different cultures. We also work to provide social as well as academic networks for equally accomplished individuals of the all descents.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Alpha Omicron Pi was founded on January 2, 1897 at Barnard College of Columbia University in New York City. Alpha Omicron Pi began as the dream of four young college women to continue their friendship throughout life. Jessie Wallace Hughan, Helen St. Clair Mullan, Stella George Stern Perry, and Elizabeth Heywood Wyman created Alpha Omicron Pi with ideas of simplicity, character, and good fellowship in which narrow discriminations and foolish displays would not have a part in life. The Delta Beta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi was founded September 22, 1956 at UL Lafayette. The chapter name comes from Delly Bandroft. The UL Lafayette Library was named after a member of AOII, Edith Garland. Alpha Omicron Pi's mission is to promote lifelong friendship, inspire academic excellence and lifelong learning, and develop leadership skills through service to the fraternity and community.

Formula SAE Team

Formula SAE is a student design competition organized by SAE International (SAE, previously known as the Society of Automotive Engineers). The competition was started in 1978 and was originally called SAE Mini Indy. The concept behind Formula SAE is that a fictional manufacturing company has contracted a student design team to develop a small Formula-style race car. The prototype race car is to be evaluated for its potential as a production item. Each student team designs, builds and tests a prototype based on a series of rules, whose purpose is both ensuring on-track safety (the cars are driven by the students themselves) and promoting clever problem solving.The prototype race car is judged in a number of different events.

International Student Council

The International Student Council at UL Lafayette promotes culture from different parts of the world. Their main aim is to be an intercessor for all international students that are a part of UL and help promote diversity on campus. Additionally, they serve as an umbrella organization to various organizations that are formed on the basis of different countries. Having served as the voice of international students for several years, ISC has been able to advocate mutual understanding across different cultures, races, and beliefs. They have done so through their display of International Week or Diversity Week every semester. International Week basically includes various kinds of activities ranging from sports tournaments to bake sales to information sessions especially held to educate international students and make their stay in the United States comfortable to trivia nights, and of course, Diversity Night. Diversity Night, as the name itself depicts, is one of the biggest events on campus that showcases the culture of different countries through dance, music, fashion shows and cuisine. ISC tries their best to build a rapport with incoming students that are away from home and bring them together as family so that they are able to find a home, away from home.

Student Affiliates of American Chemical Society

The Student Affiliation of the American Chemical Society (SAACS) is a student organization that exists mainly to promote the sciences and chemistry, not only at the university level, but at the high school level and middle school levels, as well. They participate in events such as Science Day and the SMART Festival, where they do demonstrations to show that chemistry is more than just equations, it's a physical science that displays a stunning variety of applications. SAACS also volunteers in the community such as Habitat for Humanity and The Big Event.

Student Association of Professional Landmen

The SAPL is a student group for business students majoring in Professional Land and Resource Management (PLRM) at ULL. The group participates in various volunteer events, luncheons, seminars, and networking opportunities through both the Lafayette Association of Professional Landmen (LAPL) events as well as the annual trip to North American Prospect Expo (NAPE) each year in Houston Tx. This group would best be described as a networking and professional development group to prepare students for there careers beyond what they learn in the classroom.

Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi is the only engineering honor society representing the entire engineering profession. It is the nation's second-oldest honor society, founded at Lehigh University in 1885 to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as students in engineering, or by their attainments as alumni in the ×eld of engineering, and to foster a spirit of liberal culture in engineering colleges. There are now collegiate chapters at 244 US colleges and universities, 42 active alumni chapters in 16 districts across the country, and a total initiated membership of approximately 564,000.

Students for Life

Student's for Life is dedicated to promoting, advocating, and defending the inalienable right to life possessed by each human being, from conception to natural death. Through activism and education, UL Students for Life unabashedly promotes the pro-life cause on campus and beyond. Students for Life works to provide not only a network for pro-life students but also a compassionate source of aid for pregnant university women seeking an alternative to abortion. We have weekly meetings to further educate ourselves on Pro-Life issues, weekly tabling in which we ask students their opinion about abortion in order to try and change hearts and minds, semester big events such as Cemetery of the Innocents and chalking 3400 hearts outside the library as well as other pro-life messages, and an annual trip to Washington D.C. for the March for Life.

Young Life UL

Young Life thinks the world of kids. They deserve to know what life can hold for them. Young Life leaders are caring adults who come sharing that hope as well as fun and lasting friendships with kids. Young Life is also all about fun. From club and camp to Campaigners, they will have blast laughing, trying new things and being with their friends. Best of all Young Life leaders point kids to life as it is truly meant to be lived: in relationship with Jesus Christ.

Ragin' Hospitality Association

Ragin' Hospitality Association is an organization composed of members who actively pursue volunteer work for local events in the realm of Food & Beverage, Lodging, and recreational events. Each semester, RHA participates in hospitality oriented fundraisers, which allow active members to attend the end of semester field trips (such as New Orleans, Natchitoches, and Avery Island). The organization creates a very friendly atmosphere for all members of any major on campus.

Student Orientation Staff

Student Orientation Staff is the premiere student leadership group at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Selection to staff is extremely competitive, and the staff represents the best and brightest of our university. The Student Orientation Staff works to facilitate our Orientation programs, welcoming over 6,000 new students & parents to campus each year and volunteering over 10,000 hours each summer. Members of the Student Orientation Staff participate in an intensive leadership development course during the spring semester, designed to prepare them for their role as a member of the team and enhance their personal and team leadership skills. Members of our team develop skills in group problem solving, conflict resolution, interpersonal communication, multicultural understanding, program planning, and team building.

Chi Alpha

Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship is a community of students earnestly following Jesus. We're not a fraternity or a sorority (although we're a great place to find brothers and sisters); rather, our name is Greek because the New Testament was written in Greek. It comes from 2 Corinthians 5:20 which says "we are therefore Christ's (Chi) Ambassadors (Alpha)." We often abbreviate our name as XA.

Pre-Professional Society

We will provide students interested in a health-care profession a forum for learning about their desired profession, learning about the health-care system in general, and provide opportunities to meet other students with similar interests. Our group hosts Pre-Professional Health Care informational meetings, and raise money and provide volunteer services for local charities.

Psychology Colloquium

This student organization is for Psychology majors, minors, or those who are simply interested in either Psychology or volunteering. Being involved in this club is a great way to prepare yourself for what comes after your undergraduate degree. We have club meetings twice a month, where we often have guest speakers from different fields of Psychology. In addition, we also have professors speak about their research and give information on how to join a research lab. The club also participates in a variety of local volunteering events. Most importantly, we value activities that will be useful to those who plan on going to graduate school or working in the field of Psychology in the future!

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota International Music Fraternity is a music fraternity for women founded in 1903. Our purposes are to foster interest in music and to promote social contact among musicians. We are a specialized Fraternity in that we con×ne our membership to persons interested in the single academic discipline of music. Sigma Alpha Iota has more than 335 collegiate and alumnae chapters all over the United States. The Iota Omicron chapter at the University of Louisiana of Lafayette was founded on February 5, 1943 and we continue to encourage, nurture and support the art of music in our community.

UL Peer Mentors

The UL Peer Mentor organization works under the Of×ce of First Year Experience in an effort to create a positive impact on our ×rst year students. Our goal is to support learning for ×rst year students and ease their transition into the university through the University 100 course. Peer mentors help the instructor by being a class facilitator and role model. They take on an additional course to their schedules for no credit just for the bene×t of the new students. Mentors assist in leading class discussions, announcing various types of activities around campus to encourage first years to get involved, and being someone the ×rst year students can talk to if they're having a hard time.

L'Acadien
SOUTHWESTERN
SOUTHWESTERN LOUISIANA INSTITUTE
Southwestern Louisiana Institute
LACADIEN
L'Acadien

The first L'Acadien yearbook was printed in 1912, fourteen years after the university's foundation as Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute. It contained only a few black and white pictures of the meager number of students, along with some candids and basic type. To hold it is to feel history seep out from the worn leather binding and yellowed pages. It was the beginning of a tradition. One that would continue to exist year after year despite the alternating names, mascots, locations, size, and status. Today's yearbook is fllled with bright pictures, info-graphics, themes, and people. It looks nothing like its ancestors, yet somehow both are priceless. Between their pages snapshots of the school year are saved. Everyone has a place and can remember their time here at UL. This year's theme is "Ensemble" meaning together in French. Our hope for this year's volume is that we can help bring the students, the faculty, the staff, and the community together just a little bit more. We hope you enjoy this year's L'Acadien Yearbook..

The Vermilion

The Voice of the Students

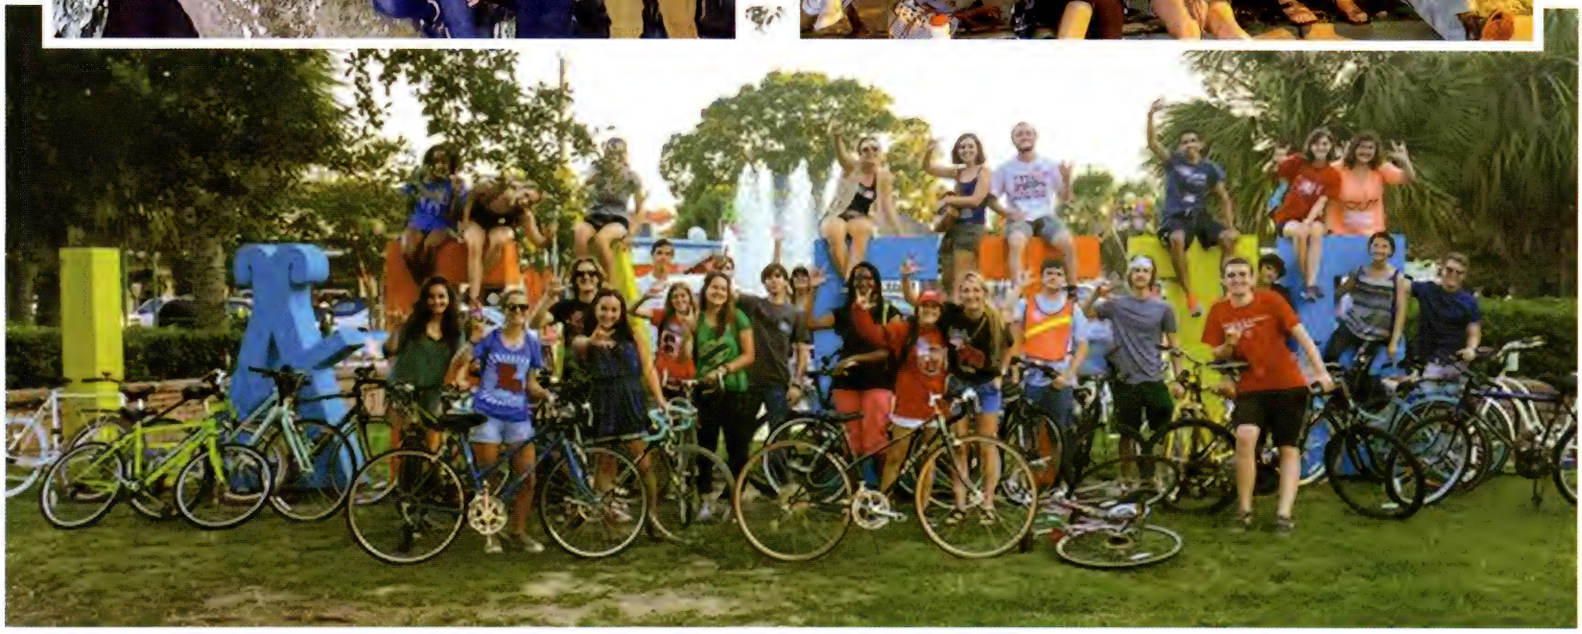

The Vermilion is the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's weekly student newspaper. From covering the H.E.A.T. higher education rally on the steps of the State Capitol to the latest campus crime, developing stories and Student Government Association meetings, the 23 Vermilion staff writers, photographers and editors can be seen jogging around campus with recorder and/or camera in hand.

Since 1904, The Vermilion has been the campus's outlet for student voices. The 2015-2016 school year was no different. Under the direction of editor-in-chief Holly Duchmann, The Vermilion expanded to multimedia and to more social media outlets including but not limited to Periscope, Snapchat and YouTube! The Verm also hosted house sessions, and local musicians like Alysse Young, and Myles Migl had the opportunity to shine. The paper also took home fIfth best website in the South at Best of the South Awards. With over 100 years of serving this University, the Verm continues to prove that, "as the will of the students goes, so goes the will of the nation," as said by Peter Spencer.

Enjoy Geaux The Ride

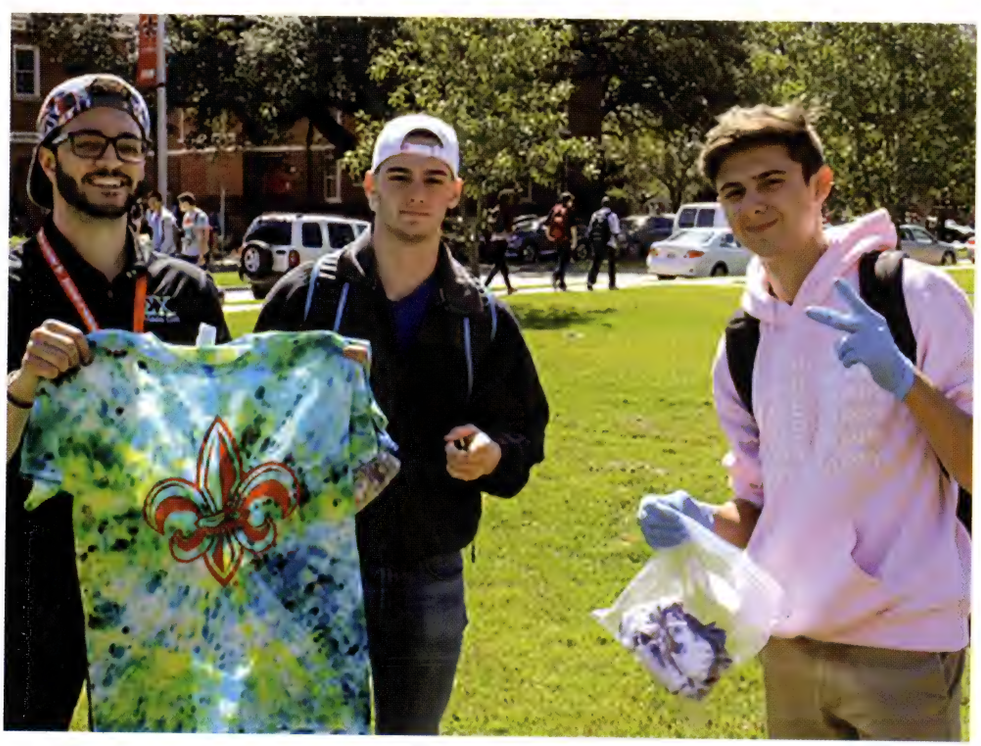

One of the newest organizations to our campus serves to help our Ragin' Cajun students kick their more recreational sides into gear. GEAUX Bike UL is a fairly new organization offered to our students, but since its founding in 2014 by Leilani Theriot and Jose Brambila, it has become overwhelmingly successful. This club serves as a recreational outlet for the many Cajuns who take part in leisurely cycling. The main mission of this organization is to inform the student body on the rules and regulations of cycling while allowing members to take part in fun events throughout the semesters. Such events held in the past by GEAUX Bike UL include: a UL Bicycle Scavenger Hunt, Downtown Alive bike rides, and the ever popular midnight bike rides. This past year, leaders of the group even started the flrst annual GEAUX Bike Krewe de Kringle to combine their love of the holiday spirit and biking all in the name of a good cause. All in all, with a reliable bicycle, outstanding organization, and good friends, who wouldn't want to take part in such a group? John F. Kennedy once said, "Nothing compares to the simple pleasure of a bike ride." What John F. Kennedy didn't know is that only with GEAUX Bike UL can a simple bike ride become even more pleasurable.

University Program Council

From Welcome Week to Lagniappe Week and all of the unique UL Ragin' Cajun events that fall in between, it's safe to say that none of it would be possible without our beloved UPC. The University Program Council, or the UPC as it is more commonly referred to, serves as the premiere student programming organization on campus.

Four committees form the organization to keep it well-rounded: African American Culture,

Above: UPC created an event where students could tie dye a shirt to help the UL baseball team "Tie Up" the Panthers on game day. Right: Valuble members of the UPC family take candids together after a weekly meeting

Events, Spirit, and Tradition. Each committee serves a unique purpose and helps to bring a little spice to the daily lives of the Ragin' Cajun nation. Without the tireless efforts of the eclectic members that make up this elite organization such university traditions like Freshman First Down, Ragin' Roar, Krewe of Roux, and Miss UL would not at all be possible. This leading, student-driven, tradition-making, highly rewarded group serves as a strong, faithful pillar for all students.

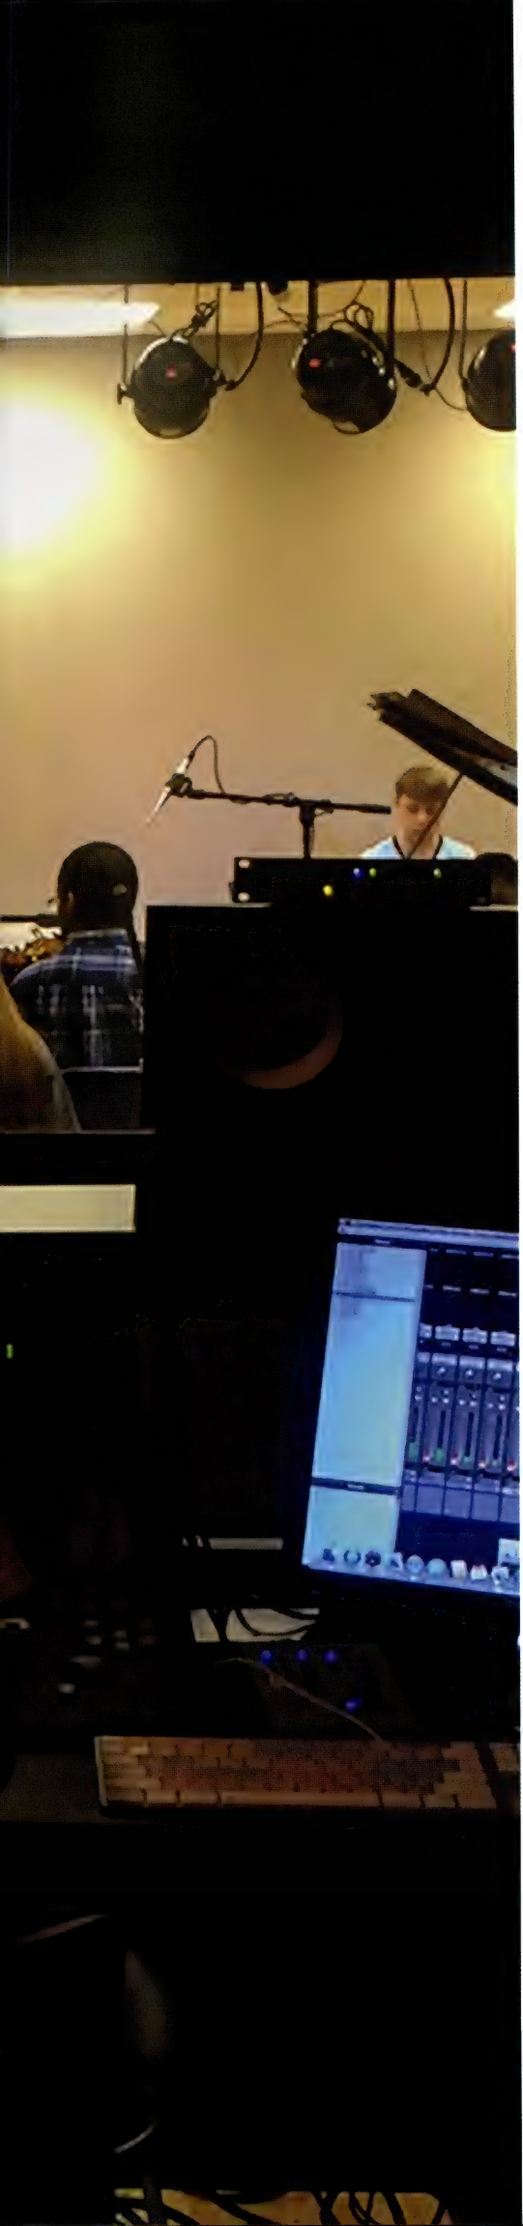

The UPC encourages input from all UL Lafayette students and are often seen extending a helping hand to many other student organizations from the International Student Council at UL to the Student Orientation Staff. Many of our universities most cherished moments are all thanks in part to the University Program Council. The dedication and impact of the UL UPC can be seen far and wide throughout our beautiful campus.

KRVS
Sound of Cajun Spirit and Pride

South Louisiana is known for its unique culture and people, and one radio station, located on the UL Lafayette campus in Burke-Hawthorne, is working to keep the distinct sounds of Louisiana alive. KRVS, Radio Acadie, broadcast daily from the heart of French Louisiana in order to keep the Cajun French and Creole traditions alive for future generations to come. The sounds of Cajun's past is heard in an impressive twelve parishes surrounding the Acadiana area. The non-profIt, public radio station is listener-supported and heritage driven. For years KRVS has worked alongside many local partners and organizations such as the Acadiana Center for the Arts, Center for Louisiana Studies, Vermilionville, Festival Internationale de Louisiane, and Festivals Acadiens et Creoles. It is because of the hardworking men and women at KRVS that multiple artist have shared their talents with us, including: Zachary Richard, Keith Frank, Michael Doucet, and Buckwheat Zydeco. KRVS 88.7 works to serve their listeners with one simple mission statement: "KRVS is an indispensable source of information, ideas and cultural experience that enables people to fulfIll their potential as citizens of south Louisiana." It is evident that from the women and men in the front of×ce to the ones in the Cypress Lake recording studio, these individuals are proud of their culture and work.

Ragin' Catholics

One campus organization has been a long-standing and widely respected group on the UL Lafayette campus since 1923. The Ragin' Cajun Catholics have worked tirelessly through many generations to "form lifelong Disciples of Christ who are committed to prayer, the sacramental life, authentic Catholic formation, sacrifIcial service, vocational discernment, and Christian stewardship." Roughly sixty-flve percent of the UL student body identifles as Catholic, therefore making the following of the campus club one of the largest. Activities offered to the student body include retreats, bible studies, tailgating, theology classes, and mission trips. Recently UL's Ragin' Cajun Catholics have been named one of the most rapid growing FOCUS campuses in the United States. FOCUS, the Fellowship of Catholic University Students, is an organization that works alongside a hundred other university Catholic programs across the country. Ragin' Cajun Catholics aims to welcome anyone and everyone into their family and often encourage students to reach out to the program. Be sure not to miss their weekly masses that are often attended by members of the surrounding Acadiana community along with students, lectures that are held periodically, and all of the love and guidance this organization has to offer. Ragin' Cajun Catholics serves to provide service to current UL students, UL alumni, and members of the Lafayette area. The Ragin' Cajun Catholics invites you to get involved by supporting their mission and "GEAUX Therefore and Make Disciples of All Cajuns!"

Forty Five and Counting

This year marked Chi Alpha's forty-fifth anniversary as a campus ministry at UL Lafayette. Throughout the years, Chi Alpha has served as a hub of faith and community to the thousands of students that have passed through its doors. From Burger Bash to Soul Train, Chi Alpha's presence was felt at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in a major way this year.

Chi Alpha's weekly activities, Lifegroups and Thursday Night Live, attract nearly two hundred students on a regular basis. Ja'el Mahoney, an iTeam leader in Chi Alpha and a sophomore in Biology, said this about her involvement: "Chi Alpha has contributed a lot to my college experience. The people are genuinely loving and I am really thankful for the impact it has made in my life." Brandon Gumpert, also a member of Chi Alpha and a senior acquiring degrees in both Industrial Technology and English, said, "Chi Alpha has enriched my time as a student greatly. It has helped me to maintain and grow in my relationship with Christ, and I have met some of my best friends through Chi Alpha."

Many students have been impacted by the presence of Chi Alpha on UL Lafayette's campus. As the forty-xfth year of Chi Alpha wraps up, they look forward to many more years of providing students with opportunities to grow in faith and community.

Baptist Collegiate Ministry

UL Lafayette is home to another loving, welcoming student organization, the Baptist Collegiate Ministry. The BCM on UL's campus serves to share and educate students on the Gospel while providing them with ways to serve themselves, their peers, and their community. In order to do so the Baptist Collegiate Ministry host a weekly worship service that is open to all to enjoy. Also, every Wednesday, the BCM invites all UL students to attend a free lunch complete with a game show for students meal time entertainment. Other fun events are held periodically throughout the semesters including the popular free pancake nights and Melonfest, held annually in Girard Park. The BCM has always, and continues to be, a safe haven for UL students. One student stated that, "The BCM (Baptist Collegiate Ministry) is a place where I enjoy because when I'm here no one cares about my background or where I come from. It's an amazing environment where I can make strong connections with others." The BCM's motto is straightforward: "Know the gospel; share the gospel. Together."

Arms Wide Open

Three words that come to mind when thinking of Young Life UL are: uplifting, inspiring, and overall, rewarding. Young Life UL effortlessly unites multitudes of Ragin' Cajuns who commonly share passions for selfLess volunteering and loving relationships with their God. It is with charitable and compassionate hearts that the members of Young Life extend their helping hands outside of the UL Lafayette campus. The efforts of the group are noticeable throughout the Acadiana area as well. Often members serve as leaders of younger organizations. There, they captivate the hearts of youngsters as their Young Life and Wyldlife leaders while also teaching them ways to get the most of out life. One junior student, Jasmine Chauvin summed Young Life to me as, "Young Life UL is an organization that is a relational ministry that invites in anyone and shares the love and hope that we have in Jesus Christ as well as provides a fun adventurous college experience through roadtrips, community service, hiking, biking, frisbee, football games, and things with one another!" This welcoming and loving organization is prepared to extend their open arms to any curious student who is searching for the perfect place to become closer to their community and to their God.

In It to Win It

With a 9-4 2014 season record, there were high expectations for the 2015 Ragin Cajun football season. The Cajuns finished with a moderate 4-9 record, winning big against teams such as Northwestern State Demons and Texas State Bobcats. This season brought changes for fans as well, with general parking was moved from Cajun Field, with most of the parking at Cajun Field reserved for RCAF members. Overall, the team scored 317 points, with 2074 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns.

The first game of the season was a narrow defeat for the Cajuns, losing by less than 10 points. However, they came back strong with their first game in the Cajun field, beating the Northwestern State Demons 44-17 on September 12. Running back Elijah McGuire scored 4 touchdowns in the first half alone, running 162 yards in the whole game.

Their next win came against the Texas State Bobcats, winning 49-27. Also a win in the Cajun field, it was a record-breaking game for McGuire, who racked up 28 carries and 170 yards during the game. Safety Al Riles also broke his career records, earning nine receptions and 98 receiving yards.

The third Ragin Cajun win came on Homecoming Day, October 31, against the University of Louisiana at Monroe. The first half of Homecoming game looked like a loss for the Ragin Cajuns; however, they came back with three touchdowns to win the game. Junior Jalen Nixon became the second quarterback in UL Lafayette history to record both 200 rushing and passing yards in a single game. This game marked the 27th win against ULM in the Battle on the Bayou, a sports rivalry against ULM spanning over fifty years.

The last Ragin Cajun win was against the Georgia State Panthers, winning 23-21. This game was their last win in the 2015 Sun Belt Conference.

This year marked the first year since 2011 that the Ragin Cajuns didn't play in the New Orleans bowl. They finished 3-5 in the Sun Belt Conference, finishing in a five-way tie for fifth place.

Pride of Acadiana

Music serves as one of the biggest cultural aspects of the Lafayette area. For the Ragin Cajuns, the Pride of Acadiana serves as our supplier.

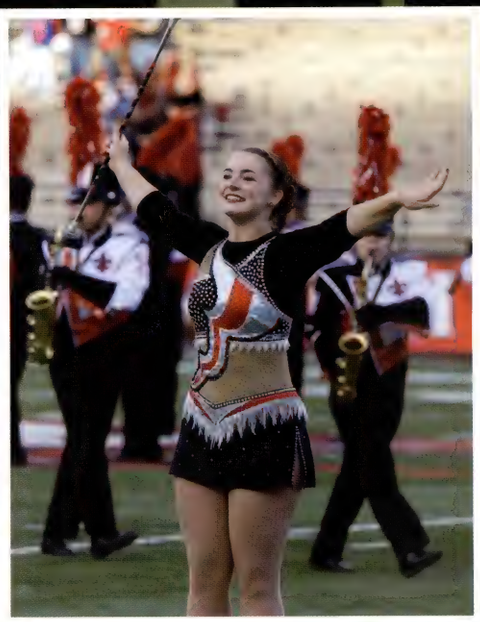

Membership is open to all majors by audition, and members become eligible for scholarships or housing stipends. Each member is required to attend band camp, rehearsals, and sectionals.

The Pride of Acadiana performs at all home games, select away games, high school contest exhibitions, and special events. The band plays a wide range of selections, from Cajun classics to the top hits of today.

No football game would be complete without the selections from the Pride of Acadiana. Every half-time is Filled with an electric performance, thanks to the dedicated members of the marching band, continuing the tradition set decades ago, while retaining the Lafayette culture.

Geaux U-U-UL!

Athletic events are one of the many things that bring the UL Lafayette family together. This community fuels specifically from the Ragin Cajun cheerleaders, who are always there with enthusiasm to sporting events and functions. Consisting of 26 members, the Ragin Cajun cheerleaders are the spirit squad of the university, who represent UL Lafayette at home football, basketball, and volleyball games; as well as other non-athletic functions such as alumni events, pep rallies, and cheer camps.

Our cheerleaders make their job look effortless and 1awless; however, there are a lot of things that go into being a Ragin Cajun cheerleader. In order to try out of the squad, you must have a current 2.0 GPA and be a full time student.

Once on the squad, there is a rigorous schedule you must adhere to. Cheerleaders have conditioning beginning in the summer, with strengthening session held 2-3 times a week during fall, winter break, and spring semesters; while practices are held Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sunday nights.

At sporting events, the crowd depends on the cheerleaders for energy. "The crowd will react based on the team, but also the cheerleaders' action," said sophomore Edwin Whitfield. "If the cheerleaders are lazy, the crowd will be lazy."

Our cheerleaders remain a force on the field and on the court, with their presence being appreciated by fans and students alike.

Worth Talking About

The UL Lafayette Water ski team is a division of our athletics well worth talking about. The team has held two National Championships since 2010 and continues to make strides in their sport across the board. The UL ski team currently consists of 17 members, men and women. They compete in three events every year: slalom, trick, and jump. In their 2015 National win at the NCWSA Nationals, the team made collegiate history by winning all six events; men's and women's slalom, trick and jump and were named NCWSA Team of the Year for the second time in a row.

The ski team advisor, Ryan Gonzales began his position with the team in 2011, right after their 2010 National Championship win. Ryan is from New Iberia and he says it was the "rich history of the team that got me hooked. After I met the team and saw their passion for the sport, the team, and the university, I was immediately humbled and knew this was going to be a long term thing." Ryan stated that it is the "professionalism of the athletes and families involved" that continues to ignite his love for the sport. Regardless of the competiveness on the water, all of the rival teams are friends.

President Taryn Grant is from Manitoba, Canada and has been water skiing ever since she can remember. Taryn competed in her first tournament at the age of 6 and says "it never would have occurred to me that I would be able to travel outside of my country to compete or to go to school because of water skiing." But she most certainly has! Here at UL studying Speech Pathology and Audiology, Taryn shared that this sport has given her incredible opportunities to travel the world and meet all kinds of amazing people.

The team practices 5-6 times a week for hours each practice, and Taryn says that there is little down time. "If you aren't skiing you might be needed to drive the boat, or coach one of your teammates." It really is a team sport; in the 2015 Nationals, every single skier contributed points to their win. Members are usually recruited or learn about the program by word of mouth. Ryan Gonzales says any student can try out for the team; however, there is limited space.

When asked where Ryan sees his team going this next year he replied, "After seeing what this team accomplished last year, I see this team doing whatever it wants to do. There is a core group of team members that truly amaze me more and more every day. They recently designed and rebuilt our dock at the lake over spring break. They even recruited their family to come and help. I have so much respect for them and as long as the teamwork they display continues, I see another championship year in store for us, even if we don't get first place at nationals."

Spike for the WIN

The Ragin Cajun volleyball team finished their 2015 season with a 6-23 record. With this being their first year not appearing in the Sun Belt conference since 2011, the season was a disappointment compared to last season's winning record.

Season highlights include their 3-1 win against Jackson State in the Earl K. Long gym, with Chanelle Gardner earning 15 kills and Sara Mossakowski with 4 blocks.

The team consists of 21 players, who all work hard each game to bring home a Ragin Cajun victory. Top players of the season include Sara Mossakowski, Chanelle Gardner, and Katey Kyle.

Road to Victory

This season, the UL Lafayette Women's Basketball team flnished their season with an overall 25-10 record. Their conference record was 13-7, while their non-conference record was 12-3. The season ended with a total of 2231 points.

The team enjoyed success throughout the year. The season started with a 95-48 victory in an exhibition game against LSU-Alexandria, while winning both games in the San Juan Shootout.

The team then enjoyed an additional three game winning streak until their defeat against Louisiana Tech.

After a series of winning streaks with few losses in between, the team was ready to compete in the 2016 Sun Belt Conference Championship. The flrst game in the championship was a narrow win for the Cajun's, beating UT Arlington 59-53. Sophomore forward Simone Fields flnished with 18 points, while senior Keke Veal had four assists. In the second game of the championship, the team lost against Little Rock in the semiflnals.

Overall, the team flnished 3rd in the Sun Bowl Championship.

To add to the successful season, head coach Garry Brodhead was named Louisiana Sports Writers Association Women's Basketball Coach of the Year, while senior Keke Veal was named to the All-Louisiana flrst team.

This year was another great one for the Men's Basketball team, who flnished with an overall record of 19-15.

The team also flnished fourth in the Sun Belt Conference Championship. When playing against South Alabama in the Quarterflnals, they won 90-68. They then advanced to the semiflnals, where they lost to Little Rock.

Overall, this year was a successful one for senior players Devonta Walker, Kasey Shepherd, and Shawn Long. Walker scored a total of 189 points, while Shepherd scored 386 points. Long scored a total of 642 points this season, along with 47 assists.

The overall team scored an average of 80.7 points this season.

This team brought in a new player, who is already a familiar face in Ragin Cajun Athletics. Elijah McGuire became the flrst dual-sport athlete to play both football and basketball for the Ragin Cajuns since 2001.

Always Strong

The UL Lafayette softball team is one of the University's most prized organizations. Full of hard workers and passionate coaches, the nationally recognized UL softball team never fails to impress. This 2015-2016 season the Ragin Cajun women remained in the spotlight as they received their 3rd consecutive assignment to host an NCAA Regional at Lamson Park. This followed being awarded another nationally ranked seed (No.14) in the 2016 NCAA Softball Tournament! It is important to note that this marks the fourth tournament allotted to the Ragin Cajuns in the past five seasons.

The Cajuns have only missed one postseason event since 1990, accumulating a total of 26 appearances in the NCAA tournament; ranking 8th in NCAA history. The ladies stand with only 8 other schools that have played in the NCAA tournament every year since 2000. Those schools include Alabama, Arizona, Florida State, Michigan, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, UCLA, and Washington. The Lafayette program's all-time overall record in these tournaments, before this season, stood at 68-53 and placed them with the 12th most wins in NCAA history.

Head Coach Michael Lotief has advanced them to the NCAA tournament every single season for 13 years. Starting as a volunteer and then stepping into the position of head coach just before the 2013 season, Coach Lotief has a career winning percentage that ranks first among all active coaches at the NCAA Division 1 level. Lotief works with associate head coach Chris Malveaux and is married to former Ragin Cajun's co-head coach Stefni (Whitton) Lotief. Coach Lotief and his Ragin Cajuns are undoubtedly surrounded by family, friends, and community that support their Cajuns wholeheartedly every season and every game. Geaux Cajuns!

Record Capping

The 14th-ranked Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns baseball team saw its 2016 season come to an end Monday night as the Cajuns couldn't come back from an early deficit against Arizona falling 3-1 in a winner-take-all championship game at the Lafayette Regional hosted at M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field.

With the loss, the Ragin' Cajuns finish the season with a 43-21 overall record capping the best four-year span in program history.

"We knew game two was probably going to be a dog fight, and it was," head coach Tony Robichaux said. "I'm proud of our guys. I am proud of the way that they fought all year to be able to get to this point."

Seniors Eric Carter, Stefan Trosclair and Kyle Clement were named to the all-tournament team for their performances at the Lafayette Regional. For the fourth straight year, the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns baseball team had a member of its squad selected as a Louisville Slugger All-American as Nick Lee was tabbed to this year's list. The Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns baseball program also saw three of its players selected in the 2016 MLB Draft. Junior right-hander Reagan Bazar was selected by the San Francisco Giants and Seniors Stefan Trosclair and Eric Carter taken by the St. Louis Cardinals

Time To Tee Off

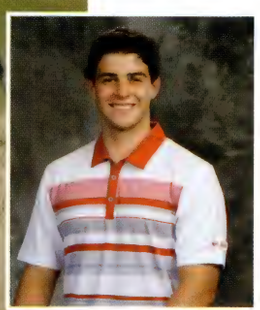

The 2015-16 golf season was a moderate one for UL. The team finished their season in ninth place at the Sun Belt Conference, while competing in five meets this season.

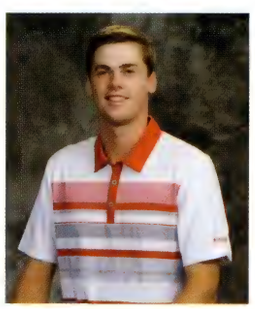

At the Sun Belt Conference, the team finished with a 32-over-par, while senior Haraldur Magnus finished in the top 25. Overall, five players finished within the top 50.

"I'm confident that we can get things turned around and headed in the right direction again," said head coach Theo Sliman.

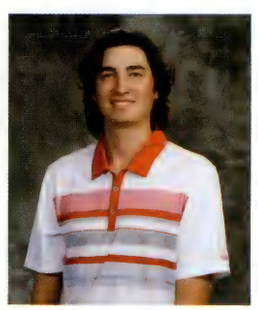

Magnus also received another honor by being named to the All-Sun Belt First Team for the second time in his career. He is one in five UL players in history to earn the honor in three consecutive seasons. "That is a testament to the consistency and leadership that he has shown this program during his career," said Silman.

Reaching New

The UL Lafayette Women's soccer team completed the 2015 season with an 8-10 record, including two tied games.
Entering their 16th season, it began with multiple wins, including success at the Baylor University tournament where the Ragin Cajuns had one win and one tied game.

The Women's soccer team worked hard throughout the whole season while keeping the Ragin Cajun spirit high. Each player was successful, with Annika Schmidt and Ashleigh Cade scoring 14 and 13 points, respectfully. The team scored an overall 69 points throughout the season.

The Women's soccer team continues to strive for success, along with support from the Lafayette community. "Even though I'm not able to attend every game," says freshman Troy Walker, "I still am proud of what the team continues to accomplish. Go Cajuns!"

Kicks Just For

The UL Men's Soccer team had a successful season in 2015, with a 3-2 record, including two ties. The soccer team, which is actually a club here at UL, plays against various other soccer clubs in the Collegiate Soccer League of Louisiana, and also attend a Regional tournament put on by the Texas Collegiate Soccer Institute.

The UL Men's Soccer club was founded over thirty years ago, but was only in the last several years that the club was transformed into an organized, community service oriented, and competitive group.

"We allow college athletes to continue to play the game of soccer on a collegiate level as well as giver back to the community," said player Reed Rudasill.

The team has been ranked 1st among all other Louisiana collegiate soccer clubs for the past two years, and strives to win a regional tournament.

Going the Distance

The UL Lafayette Cross Country team enjoyed a successful 2015 season this fall. The team competed in six meets, placing high in all of them.

At the Rice Invitational, three women runners placed within the top 15, and one male within the top 20. Overall, the Ragin Cajuns finished third with 109 points. Junior Courtney Musgrove 11th overall with a time of 17:10.07.

At the Texas A&M Invitational, the men's team was led by sophomore Beau Robinson, who finished in 42nd place, while Musgrove led the women's team, finishing 45th place. "Overall, it was frustrating, but it's better to get the bad races out of the way earlier than later when it really counts," said head coach Lon Badeaux.

The McNeese meet saw more success for the Cajuns. Musgrove and Robinson both finished third place overall in the men's and women's divisions. The women's team finished first overall in their division with 28 points, while the men's team finished second overall with 48 points.

At the UL Lafayette Invitational, both the men and women cross country teams took the first five leading positions in each race.

Both teams continued their success at the Sun Bowl Conference held Nov 1 in Atlanta. Beau Robinson and Matt Rice each earned all-conference honors as the men's team placed fourth overall. The women's team finished tenth.

On The Right Track

After four years, the Sun Blet Conference Outdoor Track and Field Championships were hosted by our own Cajun competitors. Having a new state of the art facility to display and a healthy roster to compete, the coaches and team all looked forward to the crescendo of the season held on their home turf.

Franz Beyer and Angus Sinclair capped off a 1-2 finish in the men's decathlon for the Louisiana Cajuns Track and field team while Jasmin Fusilier and Kaitlyn Moreau finished second and third overall in the women's heptathlon after the second day, Alena Hrusoci set a school and Sun Belt Conference Championship record in the women's 400-meter dash while Matt Rice finished second overall in the men's 1,500-meter run to lead the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns track and field team during the final day of the Sun Belt Conference Outdoor Championships.

Morgan Cormier added a fourth-place finish in the 400-meter hurdles (53.35) for Louisiana with the men's 4x100-meter relay team posting a fourth-place finish in 40.38. The Ragin' Cajuns earned sixth-place finishes from both the women's 4x100-meter (46.25) and 4x400-meter relay teams (3:48.55) with Kayla Thompson finishing eighth in the 100-meter dash (12.01).

Dionte Heath added a seventh-place finish in the high jump (6-5 1/2) for Louisiana with Kyle Baudoin finishing eighth (16-3 1/4) and Matt Wilson (15-9 1/4) ninth in the pole vault. Hanoj Carter (10.60) and Jeryl Brazil finished seventh and eighth respectively in the men's 100-meter dash for the Ragin' Cajuns with Beau Robinson adding an eighth-place finish in the 5,000-meter run (15:06.63).

Louisiana finished seventh overall in women's events with 61 points with the Ragin' Cajuns finishing eighth in men's events with 66 points.

Morgann Leleux capped off an incredible season for the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns track and field team after finishing second overall in the women's pole vault at the 2016 NCAA Division I Outdoor Track and Field Championships on Thursday at historic Hayward Field with a jump of 14 feet, one and a fourth inches.

All New

In 2013, the university announced its "master plan", a proposal of nine renovations to take place on campus. Included in this plan was the renovation of the Cox Communications Athletic Complex.

The project was broken down into three steps. The flrst step included improvements to the soccer and track facility, seating and amenity expansion in the south part of Cajun fleld, and a new athletics practice facility which would be close to the football practice flelds.

The second step proposed improvements to Cajun Field and renovations of the M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field.

The flnal step was to build a new sports plaza in the south part of Cajun Field, renovations to the Academic Center, improvements at the Earl K. Long gym and the Culatta Tennis Center, and a new bas-

Following a two year NCAA investigation, a concurrent investigation by the University, and an appearance by University of×cials at a hearing in November, the NCAA committee members found that last year's allegations involving David Saunders, a former University of Louisiana at Lafayette assistant football coach were true concerning his involvement in conduct that led to falsifying ACT scores of ×ve prospective student-athletes. he Committee imposed on the Ragin' Cajuns football program the lowest level of penalties for Level I violations within the NCAA's penalty structure. The Committee imposed severe penalties on Saunders.

The Committee's flndings validate that there was no "lack of institutional control" by UL Lafayette, no "failure to monitor," and no "lack of head coach responsibility." The Committee determined that Coach Mark Hudspeth, his other staff members and student-athletes had no culpability for the NCAA infractions. Dr. Joseph Savoie comments on the ordeal, "We are pleased that the Committee on Infractions recognized that the University did not have involvement in or knowledge of Level 1 violations and imposed on us the lowest level of penalties. Further, the Committee recognized our full cooperation and determination to get to the truth surrounding the allegations. ..UL Lafayette will continue to comply with NCAA standards and remains committed to maintaining a comprehensive rules compliance program."

ketball practice facility.

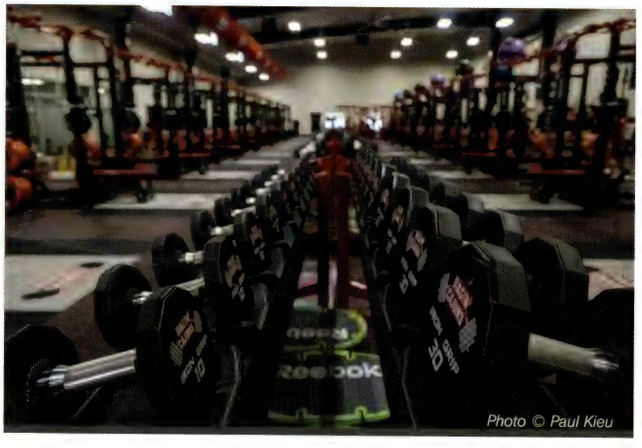

The plan was approved in May 2014, and renovations began that summer. The new Student-Athletic Performance Center was completed in fall 2015, with the football staff moving in September 12. Concurrently, the new track-soccer facility was completed around the same time.

In a quote to The Advocate, athletic director Scott Farmer said, "It'll help us recruit the best athletes that we can recruit, and help those athletes become the best that they can be."

So far, phase one of the athletics master plan has been complete. Currently, construction is wrapping up on the new intramural sports complex, which is expected to be open to students this May.

Time for a Fresh Start

Stephanie Vallejos, who spent the past four seasons as head coach at UT Pan American, begins her first season as head women's tennis coach for the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns after being named the school's 14th head coach on July 22, 2015. With seven players returning from last season led by seniors Melissa Burckhartt and Juliette Clement., the new coach remarks, "It's exciting for us to get back to playing."

Burckhartt, a senior from Houston, Texas notes, "The energy this year is a lot better you know? It's a little more positive. Its a little bit of a fresh start after a few bad seasons." With injury set backs the past two seasons, Melissa and her partner Kelly Drew became the first members of the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns women's tennis team to earn All-Sun Belt Conference honors since 2011. The duo compiled a 10-3 record at No. 1 doubles for Louisiana, which was highlighted by a 6-4 win over Joanna Nalborska and Bianca Moldovan of No. 67-ranked North Carolina State on Feb. 13.

Abby Johnson and Alexandra Way clinched the doubles point for the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns, but No. 64-ranked UT Arlington came back claiming four singles matches to claim a 4-1 victory in the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt Conference Women's Tennis Championships at City Park/ Pepsi Tennis Center.

Louisiana, under first-year coach Stephanie Vallejos, finished its season at 11-10 overall. The team said goodbye to two important member of the UL Cajun family as seniors Juliette Clement and aforementioned Melissa Burckhartt finished out their respective seasons.

"I'm definitely proud of where we're at so far, it's been a successful season," head coach Stephanie Vallejos said. "They're playing well. They're clearly having fun. I'm excited."

L'Acadien Yearbook operates with the freedom of press and protections of the First Amendment of the United States Constitutions. Multi-media Technology, 2319 Metairie Rd. Metairie, La, published volume 97 of the L'Acadien through an open-bid contract with the University of Louisiana at Lafayette office of publishing. An assessment of $12 per full time student was included in the Fall 2015 registration to fund publishing. The L'Acadien Yearbook was produced in the US and Printed in South Korea. The book was designed using iMac computers. In house graphic designers, under the supervision of the editor-in-chief designed all layouts. Photographs were either submitted or take from photographers own personal cameras. All information was sent to Multi-media digitally. Section editors and the editor-in-chief selected all photographs. Staff members and contributing photographers developed all photographs. The UL Lafayette Cajun Card Identification Office submitted all university portraits (headshots). All Greek information was submitted to L'Acadien. Missing organizations did not make an appointment or did not turn in photographs after repeated requests.

The 2015-2016 L'Acadien, Volume 97, is copyrighted and may not be reproduced in any form, except for educational purposes, without prior permission of current editor-in-chief, the UL Lafayette Communications Committee, and the UL Vice President of Affairs.

Inquiries, suggestions, information on articles, photos, employment, and comments on the yearbook can be directed to L'Acadien@live.com, or P.O. Box 44813, Lafayette LA 70504.
